OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

SEMESTER	OFFENSE	FACULTY OR HONOR COUNCIL DECISION	SANCTION
Spring 2007	Student offered for course credit in Teacher Education as own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.	Faculty	Received an F in both courses.
Spring 2007	Student submitted the work of another student as own on a take-home final in Physics.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the final exam.
Spring 2007	Student submitted the work of another student as student's own on a take-home final in Physics.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the final exam.
Summer 2007	Student turned in assignments for a Computer Science class which were exact copies of work completed by another student who took the regular class in the spring of 2006.	Faculty	Since student was taking the class as an independent study 11-week class, and the regular class did not begin until the next summer term, so the class therefore had not technically started yet, student was informed that he would receive an "F" for the class if he continued. Student elected to withdraw from the course.
Summer 2007	On several occasions Student 1 of 4 turned in homework assignments in Accounting which student copied from a Web site posted by a professor from another university.	Faculty	Received a zero as homework grade for the class.
Summer 2007	On several occasions student turned in homework assignments in Accounting which student copied from a solutions manual provided to student by a university representative who intended to provide student with a set of working papers.	Faculty	Received a zero as homework grade for the class.
Summer 2007	On several occasions student 2 of 4 turned in homework assignments in Accounting which student copied from a Web site posted by a professor from another university.	Faculty	Received a zero as homework grade for the class.
Summer 2007	On several occasions Student 3 of 4 turned in homework assignments in Accounting which student copied from a Web site posted by a professor from another university.	Faculty	Received a zero as homework grade for the class.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

Summer 2007	On several occasions Student 4 of 4 turned in homework assignments in Accounting which student copied from a Web site posted by a professor from another university.	Faculty	Received a zero as homework grade for the class.
Fall 2007	Student presented a burn case study and paper for credit in Nursing. The paper contained material from a Spring 2007 Nursing student's paper.	Faculty	Received a zero on the presentation and paper.
Spring 2008	Student submitted a Biomedical research paper as student's own for credit in Educational Psychology that was, in whole or in part, the work of another.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2008	Student 1 of 5 submitted contracts homework for credit in Business Law which was prepared in unauthorized collaboration with another student and exactly duplicated the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a zero on assignment.
Spring 2008	Student 2 of 5 submitted contracts homework for credit in Business Law which was prepared in unauthorized collaboration with another student and exactly duplicated the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.
Spring 2008	Student 3 of 5 submitted contracts homework for credit in Business Law which was prepared in unauthorized collaboration with another student and exactly duplicated the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.
Spring 2008	Student 4 of 5 submitted contracts homework for credit in Business Law which was prepared in unauthorized collaboration with another student and exactly duplicated the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

Spring 2008	Student 5 of 5 submitted contracts homework for credit in Business Law which was prepared in unauthorized collaboration with another student and exactly duplicated the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.
Spring 2008	Student 1 of 4 submitted work (the designs comprising "senior collection") as own for course credit in Family and Consumer Sciences that was, in part or in whole, the work of another.	Faculty	Received an "F" on the project and an "F" in the course.
Spring 2008	Student 2 of 4 assisted another student in completing designs for "senior collection" for course credit in Family and Consumer Sciences without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received an "F" on the project.
Spring 2008	Student 3 of 4 submitted work (the designs comprising "senior collection") as own for course credit in Family and Consumer Sciences that was, in part or in whole, the work of another.	Faculty	Received an "F" on the project.
Spring 2008	Student 4 of 4 submitted work as own that was, in whole or in part, the work of another for final exam in Family and Consumer Science.	Honor Council (2nd offense – Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" in course.
Spring 2008	Student submitted for course credit in Nursing a "care plan" which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student.	Faculty	a. Final course grade reduced by a full letter grade. The full letter grade reduction will be equivalent to a 10 point reduction. b. Had 10 days to complete a 10 page APA format paper regarding academic integrity, good professional character, and ethical behavior as that relates to nursing practice. The paper had to include what student learned from this incident and how that will be applied to academic integrity and professional behaviors. c. Failure to turn in the assigned paper within 10 days, follow APA format in the development and citation of the paper, or include all assigned topics will result in failure of Nursing course.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

Spring 2008	Student submitted a research paper for credit in English which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Summer 2008	None.
Fall 2008	Student submitted an assignment as student's own for credit in ART which was, in whole or in part, the work of a student who took the same class in the spring semester of 2008.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.
Fall 2008	Student 1 of 3 submitted an assignment as student's own for credit in ART which was, in whole or in part, the work of a student who took the same class in the spring semester of 2008.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.
Fall 2008	Student 2 of 3 submitted an assignment as student's own for credit in ART which was, in whole or in part, the work of two other students in the same class and one student who took the class in the spring semester of 2008.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.
Fall 2008	Student 3 of 3 submitted an assignment as student's own for credit in ART which was, in whole or in part, the work of a student who took the same class in the fall semester of 2007.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment.
Fall 2008	Student submitted financial statements for credit in Accounting that student had taken via a flash drive from the computer of another student without the knowledge or consent of the other student. In addition, when confronted by professors about these financial statements, student stated falsely that student had worked with the other student and had not copied financial statements.	Faculty	Received a zero on the assignment and course grade reduced by one letter.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

Fall 2008	Student 1 of 2 submitted work for credit in Computer Science that was, in whole or in part, a copy of the work of another student. In addition, he viewed, during an examination period in Computer Science, material not authorized by the instructor giving the examination.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the class.
Fall 2008	Student 2 of 2 submitted work for credit in Computer Science that was, in whole or in part, a copy of the work of another student.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the class.
Fall 2008	Student submitted an assignment for credit in Music which was, in whole or in part, the work of another in violation of instructions given in the syllabus to the effect that "any transcriptions produced from other resources will be given zero credit."	Faculty	Received a zero for the assignment.
Spring 2009	Student submitted for credit in Nursing a written report of student's Operating Room Experience containing portions that were copied word for word from the work of another student.	Honor Council	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2009	Student submitted for credit in Nursing a written report of student's Operating Room Experience containing portions that were copied word for word from the work of another student.	Honor Council	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2009	Student submitted for credit in Nursing a written report of her Operating Room Experience containing portions taken from the work of another student. In addition, in the process of using the work of the other student, student's academic report was falsified to indicate that student observed a procedure not observed.	Honor Council	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2009	Student submitted a lab assignment for credit	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the lab assignment and a 20 point reduction in

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	in Family and Consumer Sciences which was the work of another student with changes made through the "track changes" program in Microsoft Word.	(2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	professionalism grade and F in course (additional sanction for second offense).
Spring 2009	Student submitted a Matlab homework assignment for credit in Engineering, part or all of which was the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2009	Student submitted a lab report for credit in Chemistry that was in whole or in part the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the lab report and was granted, at student's request, an "Incomplete" in the course.
Summer2009	Student submitted for credit two assignments that were, in whole or in part, the work of another student (student's sister's notes).	Faculty	Received a "0" for each assignment.
Fall 2009	Student submitted as own a manual bookkeeping project for credit in Accounting that included the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a reduced grade on the assignment.
Fall 2009	Student submitted homework for credit in Physics that included work copied from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2009	Student submitted a research paper for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student who had taken the class in the Fall 2008 term.	Honor Council	Reduced grade in course from an "A" to a "C".
Fall 2009	Student submitted for credit in Management as student's own, in whole or in part, the work of another student.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2009	Student submitted a writing assignment for credit in Religion which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2009	Student took homework solutions posted on Blackboard by the professor for a prior semester and pasted them into his own homework for Statistics.	Faculty	Received a grade of "0" on the assignment and a verbal warning that a repeat of the behavior will result in failure for the course.
Fall 2009	Student submitted a fitness program	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	assignment for credit in Human Performance which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student.
Fall 2009	Student submitted a case study for credit in Finance which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student. In addition, the work was completed through unauthorized collaboration with another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2009	Student submitted a case study for credit in Finance which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student. In addition, the work was completed through unauthorized collaboration with another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2009	Student submitted an article review assignment by email to professor for credit in Biology containing passages taken word for word or in substance from the work of another without properly identifying said passages or crediting the original author(s).	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Spring 2010	Student submitted work for credit in Accounting which was not student's own work and appeared to be remarkably similar to the solution manual. When confronted, student claimed to have constructed the work from a publicly available excel template; however, when asked to supply that template student was unable to do so.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2010	Student submitted a homework assignment for credit in Engineering consisting of a print-out of the textbook author's complete solutions manual for the two chapters covered in the assignment. Student signed own name at the top of each chapter, claiming the work as own.	Faculty	In order to receive a WP in the class, student must: 1) Drop the class by March 16; 2) Change major to "Undecided" and do not at any time change major to any offered by the School of Engineering and Computer Science; 2) Contact Sally Firmin, Director of Academic Support Programs for Career Counseling, and discuss options for maintaining status as a full-time student at Baylor for the current semester; and

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

			3) Contact the Counseling Center immediately for assistance in dealing with family-related issues.
Spring 2010	During a MATLAB exam in Engineering, student copied the solution for one problem from a Yahoo Answers Web page in spite of explicit instructions from the professor on the exam handout that internet resources are not allowed.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2010	Another student submitted a lab report that was not accused student's work for accused student for credit in Electrical and Computer Engineering. Accused student had not attended the lab for which the report was submitted, but the other student submitted the report with student's full knowledge and approval.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the lab report.
Spring 2010	Student submitted a homework assignment for credit in Neuroscience that was identical to that of another student whose work accused student had copied when other student emailed it to accused student.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" in the class.
Spring 2010	Student submitted for credit in Math an assignment that was copied from a solutions manual rather than student's own work. Student also signed a paper saying that the work was not copied, when in fact it was. In addition, when confronted by the professor, student again denied that copying from the solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" on two homework grades and a loss of bonus points.
Spring 2010	Student submitted a paper for credit in Psychology which was almost an exact copy of a paper submitted by another student in 2009.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Suspended for two semesters and received a permanent "F" in the class.
Spring 2010	On multiple homework assignments submitted for credit in Physics, student submitted	Faculty	Received a "0" for semester homework grade.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	solutions that were taken from the work of another through online sources. In addition, this was done in violation of the professor's homework policy that work was not to be copied from any source.
Summer 2010	Computer code for one assignment was submitted for credit in Computer Science, as student's own work when it was, in fact, the work of another. The code was submitted for student through student's account from off-campus computers outside of Waco.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" in the course and expelled.
Summer 2010	Computer code for one assignment was submitted for credit in Computer Science, as student's own work when it was, in fact, the work of another. The code was submitted for student through student's account from off-campus computers outside of Waco.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" in the course and expelled.
Summer 2010	Student submitted for credit in Computer Science assignments in which student used, as student's own, work of 5 other students who had sent electronic copies of their exercises and source code to student.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" in the course and expelled.
Summer 2010	Computer code for one or more assignments was submitted for credit in Computer Science, as student's own work when it was, in fact, the work of another. The code was submitted for student through student's account from off-campus computers outside of Waco.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" in the course and expelled.
Summer 2010	On multiple occasions, for credit in Computer Science, computer code for multiple assignments was submitted as student's own work when it was, in fact, the work of another. The code was submitted for you through your account from off-campus computers outside of Waco.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" in the course and expelled.
Fall 2010	Student submitted homework problem solutions for credit in Physics which were copied from an online solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2010	Student submitted as student's own for credit	Faculty	Received a reduced grade for the project.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	in Accounting a take home project containing a worked out solution obtained from the internet.
Fall 2010	Student submitted for credit in Electrical and Computer Engineering two homework problem solutions which were copied from the professor's 2008 solution key.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the homework.
Fall 2010	Student submitted for credit in Philosophy online chapter summary journal entries which were copied, sometimes with minor variations, from the entries of other students.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the online journal.
Fall 2010	Student submitted 5 files for 3 assignments which appeared to be partial or mostly complete copies of another student's work from a previous semester in the Computer Science course.	Faculty	Received an "F" in the course.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Management a homework assignment that was taken word-for-word from an assignment that was submitted by a student in a previous semester.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Spring 2011	Student submitted homework for credit in Religion that was, in whole or in part, the work of another, or, in the alternative, was prepared in collaboration with another without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received half credit for the homework.
Spring 2011	Student submitted homework for credit in Religion that was, in whole or in part, the work of another, or, in the alternative, was prepared in collaboration with another without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received half credit for the homework.
Spring 2011	Student submitted a prelab summary for credit in Chemistry that was substantially identical to that of three other students, having either offered the work of another as student's own or collaborated with other students on the	Faculty	Received a "0" for the experiment.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	assignment without the permission of the professor.
Spring 2011	Student submitted a prelab summary for credit in Chemistry that was substantially identical to that of three other students, having either offered the work of another as student's own or collaborated with other students on the assignment without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the experiment.
Spring 2011	Student submitted a prelab summary for credit in Chemistry that was substantially identical to that of three other students, having either offered the work of another as student's own or collaborated with other students on the assignment without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the experiment.
Spring 2011	Student submitted a prelab summary for credit in Chemistry that was substantially identical to that of three other students, having either offered the work of another as student's own or collaborated with other students on the assignment without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the experiment.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Math an "exam redo" which contained identical answers on a majority of the problems worked to that of another student including work, diagrams, and phrases, indicating that he submitted the work of another as his own, allowed another to submit his work as the other student's own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.	Honor Council	Pending
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Math an "exam redo" which contained identical answers on a	Honor Council	Not Guilty

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	majority of the problems worked to that of another student including work, diagrams, and phrases, indicating that he submitted the work of another as his own, allowed another to submit his work as the other student's own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.
Spring 2011	Student copied an Art Event assignment from another student and then submitted the assignment for credit in Art. In addition, student copied from the same student on a quiz in the same course.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Neuroscience a lab report which was identical to that of another student even at the level formatting, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Neuroscience a lab report which was identical to that of another student even at the level formatting, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2011	Student copied homework assignment #9, a Matlab programming assignment, from another student and submitted it as student's own for credit in Engineering. In addition, this	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	was the second time during this semester that student had submitted an assignment identical to that of the other student.
Spring 2011	Student allowed another student to copy student's homework assignment #9, a Matlab programming assignment, and the other student then submitted it as his/her own for credit in Engineering. In addition, this was the second time during this semester that student had submitted an assignment identical to that of the other student.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Engineering homework assignment #9, a Matlab programming assignment. which was identical to that of another student except for the names at the top of the pages, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment and required to meet with professor.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Engineering homework assignment #9, a Matlab programming assignment. which was identical to that of another student except for the names at the top of the pages, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment and required to meet with professor.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Engineering homework assignment #9, a Matlab	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment and required to meet with professor.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	programming assignment. which was identical to that of another student except for the names at the top of the pages, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Engineering homework assignment #9, a Matlab programming assignment. which was identical to that of another student except for the names at the top of the pages, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment and required to meet with professor.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Engineering homework assignment #8, a Matlab programming assignment. which was identical to that of another student except for the names at the top of the pages, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment and required to meet with professor.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Engineering homework assignment #8, a Matlab programming assignment. which was identical to that of another student except for the	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment and required to meet with professor.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	names at the top of the pages, indicating that student submitted the work of another as student's own, allowed another to submit student's work as his/her own, and/or collaborated with another student on the assignment without the permission of the instructor.
Spring 2011	Student submitted as student's own for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences a paper containing passages which were exactly the same as another student's work, including quotes appearing in the same order in the two papers and quotes containing the same errors.	Faculty	Received a reduced grade on the paper.
Spring 2011	Student submitted as student's own for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences a paper containing passages which were exactly the same as another student's work, including quotes appearing in the same order in the two papers and quotes containing the same errors.	Faculty	Received a reduced grade on the paper.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Quantitative Business Analysis lab work that was exactly the same as that of another student, indicating that student either offered for course credit the work of another, allowed another student to submit student's work as his/her own, or prepared the work in collaboration with another student without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2011	Student submitted for credit in Quantitative Business Analysis lab work that was exactly the same as that of another student, indicating that student either offered for course credit the work of another, allowed another student to submit student's work as his/her own, or prepared the work in collaboration with	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the assignment.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	another student without the permission of the professor.
Summer 2011	None.
Fall 2011	Student submitted a homework assignment for credit in Physics containing portions taken from an outside source in violation of instructions in the course syllabus and verbal reminders from the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2011	Student gave an electronic copy of a paper student had submitted for credit in Biology during fall 2009 to a student currently taking the course. Student knew or should have known that this would give that student an unfair academic advantage in the course. The student did, in fact, submit as the student's own work, approximately 80% of accused student's paper.	Honor Council	No sanction other than the violation report on record.
Fall 2011	Student submitted for credit in Biology a paper that was 80% the work of another student who had taken the same course in fall 2009 and had given student an electronic copy of the paper.	Faculty	Allowed to submit an original paper for up to 80% credit by the final exam date.
Fall 2011	Student submitted as student's own for credit in Health Education an exact copy of a paper written by another student who had taken the course in spring 2011.	Faculty	Required to interview two specific men and write 5-page papers over each interview.
Spring 2012	Student submitted work for credit in Chemistry containing an answer referencing a chemical and a procedure not used in the Spring semester (but are in the Fall) which would indicate that student either submitted work student had previously offered for course credit in another course or student submitted the work of another student as student's own.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	Additionally, student lied to the faculty member when student told her that student got the experiment confused with an experiment done in High School.
Spring 2012	Student submitted an assignment for credit in Spanish that was substantially identical to that of another student, having either offered the work of another as student's own, having shared work with the other student, or having collaborated with the other student on the assignment without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Spring 2012	Student submitted an assignment for credit in Spanish that was substantially identical to that of another student, having either offered the work of another as student's own, having shared work with the other student, or having collaborated with the other student on the assignment without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Spring 2012	On two occasions student submitted assignments for credit in Psychology which included work that was the same as that of another student, having either offered the work of another as student's own, having shared work with the other student, or having collaborated with the other student on the assignment without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" for each of the two assignments and overall grade in the course was dropped by one letter grade.
Spring 2012	On two occasions student submitted assignments for credit in Psychology which included work that was the same as that of another student, having either offered the work of another as student's own, having shared work with the other student, or having	Faculty	Received a "0" for each of the two assignments and overall grade in the course was dropped by one letter grade.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	collaborated with the other student on the assignment without the permission of the professor.
Spring 2012	Student submitted for credit in Religion a paper containing a number of passages taken from the paper of another student who submitted the paper for credit for the same course during a prior semester.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2012	Student submitted for credit in English an essay that was written by another student who earned credit for the essay in another class.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" for the essay and a permanent "F" for the course. Suspended for one semester.
Spring 2012	Student submitted as student's own the work of another for credit in Life and Work of the Pastor.	Faculty	Received an "F" on the assignment.
Summer 2012	None.
Fall 2012	Student submitted as student's own for credit on a short essay assignment in Great Texts an internet paper written by someone else.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the paper, but required to rewrite the paper until passable.
Fall 2012	Student copied the work of another student on an assignment in Chemistry without the professor's permission.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2012	Student copied the work of another student on an assignment in Chemistry without the professor's permission.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2012	Student allowed another student to copy student's work on an assignment in Chemistry without the professor's permission.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2012	Student allowed another student to copy student's work on a lab assignment in Chemistry without the professor's permission	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2012	Student allowed another student to copy student's work on a lab assignment in Chemistry without the professor's permission.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Fall 2012	Student copied the work of another student on	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	an assignment in Chemistry without the professor's permission.
Fall 2012	Student submitted as student's own for credit in Computer Science a programming assignment containing source code written by the professor. Furthermore, this was a violation of the professor's instructions prohibiting "copying from outside sources."	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2012	Student submitted as student's own for credit in Human Performance a job project cover letter that was the work of another student.	Faculty	Received no credit for the copied portion of the project.
Spring 2013	Student submitted a lab report for credit in Biology that was, in whole or in part, the work of another, or, in the alternative, was prepared in collaboration with another without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the lab report.
Spring 2013	Student submitted a lab report for credit in Biology that was, in whole or in part, the work of another, or, in the alternative, was prepared in collaboration with another without the permission of the instructor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the lab report.
Spring 2013	Student submitted a bookkeeping case for credit in Accounting containing in part the work of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the project.
Spring 2013	Student submitted for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences as student's own work an assignment containing, in whole or in part, the work of another student who took the class during an earlier semester.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2013	Student submitted a take-home midterm assignment for credit in Health Education containing a number of essay answers which were exactly the same as those of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the midterm exam grade and required to interview a person chosen by the instructor and write a paper about the interview.
Spring 2013	Student submitted a take-home midterm	Faculty	Received a "0" for the midterm exam grade and required to assignment for credit in Health Education containing a number of essay answers which were exactly the same as those of another student.		interview a person chosen by the instructor and write a paper about the interview.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

Spring 2013	Student submitted for credit in Finance a homework case study as student's own work which in fact had been copied from the textbook's instructor's manual which student found on the internet.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the homework assignment.
Spring 2013	Student submitted for credit in Finance a homework case study as student's own work which in fact had been copied from the textbook's instructor's manual which student found on the internet.	faculty	Received a "0" on the homework assignment.
Spring 2013	Student submitted for credit in Finance a homework case study as student's own work which in fact had been copied from the textbook's instructor's manual which student found on the internet.	Honor Council (2nd Violation-Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2013	Student submitted for credit in Finance a homework case study as student's own work which in fact had been copied from the textbook's instructor's manual which student found on the internet.	Honor Council (3rd Violation-Automatic Referral)	Received an "F" for the course and suspension for two semesters.
Spring 2013	Student copied the work of another student during the midterm exam in Physics.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the exam.
Spring 2013	In order to earn extra points for Biology, student claimed to have attended the Department of Biology Davidson Lecture and Awards night but did not sign in at the event as required. In addition, student submitted notes from the event that were almost identical to those of another student indicating that, without the permission of the professor, student prepared the work in collaboration	Faculty	The points for the extra credit assignment were revoked and required to sit on the front row of the classroom during the final examination.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	with the other student, submitted the work of the other student as student's own, or allowed that student to submit student's work as his/her own.
Spring 2013	In order to earn extra points for Biology, student claimed to have attended the Department of Biology Davidson Lecture and Awards night but did not sign in at the event as required. In addition, student submitted notes from the event that were almost identical to those of another student indicating that, without the permission of the professor, student prepared the work in collaboration with the other student, submitted the work of the other student as student's own, or allowed that student to submit student's work as his/her own.	Honor Council	Lost the points for the extra credit assignment and required to sit on the front row of the classroom during the final examination.
Spring 2013	Student submitted as student's own an outline for speech 6 in Speech Communication that was, in whole or in part, the work of another which is a violation of the professor's course policies.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2013	Student made outline for speech 6 in Speech Communication available to another student who then submitted student's work as his/her own which is a violation of the professor's course policies.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2013	Student submitted two assignments for credit in Theater Arts that were, in whole or in part, the work of another student.	Faculty	Received an "F" on both assignments.
Summer 2013	None.
Fall 2013	Student went to class in Theology without the critical analysis of the text assigned for the day, then used the work of another student to write	Honor Council (2nd Violation-Automatic Referral)	Initially received an "F" for the assignment and a reduction of overall participation grade of 25%. Expelled because it was a third violation.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	the assignment, paraphrasing each paragraph of the other student's work in the same order and with the same quotes. Student left the room and went to print the assignment, then returned to the classroom. At the end of class, student turned in the assignment as student's own work.
Fall 2013	During an exam in Math student copied answers from another student.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2013	On several occasions, as the class in English went over and graded the daily quiz, student filled in answers student had left blank during the quiz.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz portion of the final grade and received a maximum of a "70" for the participation grade for the course.
Fall 2013	On several occasions, as the class in English went over and graded the daily quiz, student filled in answers student had left blank during the quiz.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the quiz portion of the final grade and received a maximum of a "70" for the participation grade for the course.
Fall 2013	On several occasions student submitted Excel spreadsheets for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences that were, in whole or in part, the work of another student.	Honor Council	Received an "F" for the course.
Fall 2013	On several occasions student made excel spreadsheets prepared for credit in Family and Consumer Sciences available to another student who then submitted the work as his/her own.	Honor Council	Received a 50% grade on each assignment in question.
Fall 2013	Student submitted a lesson plan for credit in Music that was, in whole or in part, the work of another student.	Faculty	Received an "F" for each of the two projects.
Fall 2013	In violation of course policy student shared work with another student for two different projects in Computer Science during the fall 2013 semester.	Faculty	Received an "F" for each of the two projects.
Fall 2013	Student submitted answers to a take home exam for credit in Nursing that were, in whole	Faculty	Received a "0" for the exam.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	or in part, the work of another student.
Spring 2014	Over the course of several different projects submitted for credit in Computer Science, student submitted computer code which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student, having stolen the code from that student without his/her knowledge.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2014	Over the course of several different projects submitted for credit in Computer Science, student submitted computer code which was, in whole or in part, the work of another student, having stolen the code from that student without his/her knowledge.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the course.
Spring 2014	Student submitted for credit in Accounting a homework assignment copied from the work of another student who took the class during an earlier semester. In addition, the work was formatted identically to the solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" on all homework submitted for the course through January 23, 2014.
Spring 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which was copied from an answer written in student's textbook which was identical to the answer in the solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" on all homework for the course submitted through February 10, 2014.
Spring 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied from the solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" on all homework for the course submitted through February 10, 2014.
Spring 2014	Student submitted an assignment for credit in Finance portions of which were copied from the work of another student, resulting in an 88% similarity between the two documents.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Spring 2014	Student made work student had prepared for credit in Finance available to another student who then submitted the work as his/her own.	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2014	Student submitted for credit in Chemistry a worksheet containing the correct answers for a worksheet assigned for the course in a	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	previous semester, not the current assignment, indicating that the work was copied from the work of a student who took the class during that earlier semester.
Spring 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied from a solutions manual found online.	Faculty	Received a "0" on all homework submitted through March 3, 2014.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a reflection paper for credit in in Religion containing one answer which student copied from another student's work.	Faculty	Required to rewrite the paper for a maximum grade of 50%.
Spring 2014	Student submitted answers for an assignment in Chemistry which student obtained from another student's work.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a homework assignment for credit in Engineering that was almost identical to that of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2014	Student submitted an electronic homework assignment for credit in Engineering that contained material identical to that of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2014	Student submitted an electronic homework assignment for credit in Engineering that contained material identical to that of another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a homework assignment for credit in in Educational Psychology portions of which student copied from other students' work.	Honor Council	Not Guilty
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which showed evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, containing material copied from a rubric used for grading.	Honor Council (2nd Violation- Automatic Referral)	Received a permanent "F" for the course with the option of retaking the course for credit.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which is a word for word copy of a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which is a word for word copy of a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Honor Council	Pending
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which were copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, most of which shows evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, most of which shows evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, most of which shows evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, most of which shows evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Honor Council	Pending
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied word for word	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	from a rubric used for grading.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which were copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was a word for word copy of a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was a word for word copy of a rubric used for grading.	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was a word for word copy of a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which were copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which showed evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which were copied from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which were copied word for word from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which showed evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which showed evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry, parts of which showed evidence of being copied from a rubric used for grading.		Charges dropped after further investigation.
Spring 2014	Student submitted a report for credit in	Honor Council	Received a "0" for the report.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	Chemistry which was a word for word copy of a rubric used for grading.
Summer 2014	Student provided a paper student wrote to another student so that that student could submit the paper as that student's own for credit in Speech Communication.	Faculty	The Honor Code violation was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Summer 2014	Student submitted a paper as student's own for credit in Speech Communication, but the paper was actually written and given to student by another student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted in the course through discovery of violation.
Fall 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted in the course through discovery of violation.
Fall 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted in the course through discovery of violation.
Fall 2014	Student submitted several homework assignments for credit in Accounting which student copied, in whole or in part, from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Because student withdrew from the course, the professor did not assign a grade sanction, but did report the violations to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Fall 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied, in whole or in part, from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted through discovery of violation.
Fall 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied, in whole or in part, from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted through discovery of violation.
Fall 2014	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied, in whole or in part, from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted through discovery of violation.
Fall 2014	Student submitted a Java development project	Honor Council	Pending

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	for credit in Management Information Systems which was, in whole or in part, the work of a student who submitted the work for credit for the course in a previous semester.
Fall 2014	Student submitted a homework solution for credit in Physics which student copied, in whole or in part, from the work of another student. In addition, student worked with two other students on a homework problem for the same course without the professor's permission.	Faculty	Received a "0" for both homework problems.
Fall 2014	Student submitted an essay for credit in English at least 70% of which was the same as that of another student, having either offered the work of another as student's own or having collaborated with the other student on the assignment without the permission of the professor.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the essay but was allowed to resubmit the essay on a different topic to replace the "0" with an "F".
Fall 2014	Student submitted for credit in Computer Science an assignment containing computer code that was almost identical to that submitted by another student. In addition, student tried to conceal the similarities by changing insignificant parts of the program.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Fall 2014	Student submitted for credit in Computer Science an assignment containing computer code that was almost identical to that submitted by another student. In addition, student tried to conceal the similarities by changing insignificant parts of the program.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Spring 2015	Student submitted a lab report for credit in Chemistry which was, in whole or in part, the work of another.	Faculty	Received no credit for the lab report.
Spring 2015	Student submitted two lab reports for credit in Chemistry which were, in whole or in part, the	Faculty	Received no credit for one lab report and partial credit for the other lab report.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

	work of another.
Spring 2015	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied, in whole or in part, from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted through January 27, 2015.
Spring 2015	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied, in whole or in part, from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted through January 29, 2015.
Spring 2015	Student submitted homework for credit in Accounting which student copied, in whole or in part, from a solutions manual.	Faculty	Received a "0" for all homework submitted through February 4, 2015.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a lab assignment for credit in Teacher Education which was, in whole or in part, the work of a former student.	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a paper for credit in in Military Science, part or all of which student took from another student's work without giving that student credit and without identifying the portions used.	Faculty	Received an "F" for the paper.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a lab report for credit in Chemistry which was copied, in whole or in part, from the work of another.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a lab report for credit in Chemistry which was copied, in whole or in part, from the work of another.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a lab report for credit in Chemistry which was copied, in whole or in part, from the work of another.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2015	Student submitted as student's own for credit in Management work copied directly from a group document, which was prepared in violation of the instructions from the professor that each student was to submit an individual preparation template for the role play simulation.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2015	Another student submitted, as that student's	Honor Council	Pending own, for credit in CHE 3238, accused student's work, which accused student had given to that student.

OTHER'S WORK

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (1)

Offering for course credit as one's own work, in whole or in part, the work of another.

Spring 2015	Student submitted as student's own for credit in Chemistry work that had a high degree of similarity to another student's work.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied from the key used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report and not allowed to remove the grade from the final grade calculation.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied from the key used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report and not allowed to remove the grade from the final grade calculation.
Spring 2015	Student submitted a report for credit in Chemistry which was copied from the key used for grading.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the report and you will not be allowed to remove the grade from the final grade calculation.

Rev. 9-1-2009; 1-7-2010; 1-25-2010; 5-28-2010; 6-4-2010; 6-15-2010; 8-10-2010, 9-3-2010; 12-9-2010; 1-14-2011; 6-16-2011; 8-11-2011; 9-28-2011; 01/04/2012; 05/24/2012; 05/25/2012; 08/18/2012; 09/27/2012; 01/03/2013; 05/28/2013; 05/30/2013; 06/06/2013; 8/19/2013; 09/05/2013; 01/16/2014; 2/11/2014; 06/11/2014; 07/29/2014; 08/05/2014; 08/19/2014; 09/22/2014; 11/17/2014; 01/15/ 2015; 05/27/2015; 06/03/2015; 06/16/2015