TAKING BU PROPERTY

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (10)

Taking, keeping, misplacing, tampering with, or damaging the property of Baylor University, a faculty member, or another student, if one knows or should reasonably know that one would, by such conduct, obtain an unfair academic advantage. This section is intended to include, but not be limited to, material in a university library.

SEMESTER	OFFENSE	FACULTY OR HONOR COUNCIL DECISION	SANCTION
Spring 2007	Student took an exam belonging to another student in Human Performance from the desk of professor and used information from the exam to obtain an unfair advantage when taking exam.	Honor Council -2nd Offense	A grade of F in course; Suspension for one academic year (200720, 200730, 200810) During suspension, student may not take courses at another college or university and transfer them back to Baylor.
Spring 2007	Student took a test for Psychology Statistics from the Psychology Department offices with the intention of giving it to another student, knowing it would give him an unfair academic advantage when taking the test.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY – none
Spring 2007	Student stole a test paper from room B207 at the Baylor Science Building knowing that student would, by such conduct, obtain an academic advantage.	Honor Council	Suspension for two semesters & student may not transfer any coursework back to Baylor during these semesters of suspension.
Summer 2007	None.
Fall 2007	Student used computer to take pictures of the exam that was returned that day in Psychology. Student showed other students the pictures of the exam.	Faculty	Student was asked to meet with Professor and Department Chair to discuss the seriousness of the violation and to submit two letters of apology.
Spring 2008	On one occasion, just prior to the beginning of class in Business during which a quiz was to be given, student went through the instructor's book, along with materials from the book, and the instructor's bag without the consent of the instructor and while the instructor was not in the room.	Faculty	Received a 1/2 grade deduction on final grade for course.
Spring 2008	On one occasion, just prior to the beginning of class in Business during which a quiz was to be given, student locked the door to the classroom after the professor exited the room. Student then went through the instructor's	Faculty	Received a 1/2 grade deduction on final grade for course.

TAKING BU PROPERTY

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (10)

Taking, keeping, misplacing, tampering with, or damaging the property of Baylor University, a faculty member, or another student, if one knows or should reasonably know that one would, by such conduct, obtain an unfair academic advantage. This section is intended to include, but not be limited to, material in a university library.

	book, along with materials from the book, and the instructor's bag without the consent of the instructor and while the instructor was not in the room.
Summer 2008	None.
Fall 2008	None.
Spring 2009	None.
Summer 2009	None.
Fall 2009	None.
Spring 2010	None.
Summer 2010	None.
Fall 2010	None.
Spring 2011	None.
Summer 2011	None.
Fall 2011	During an exam review in Nursing student copied test questions and answers onto a separate piece of paper with the intention of taking the information with student from the room. Student knew, or should have known, that student would, by such conduct, obtain an unfair academic advantage. In addition, student admitted to having done this in other classes.	Faculty	Required to complete all remaining exam reviews in a private, one on one setting with the professor rather than in open class mode. Grade in course will be reduced by one level/step.
Spring 2012	None.
Summer 2012	None.
Fall 2012	None.
Spring 2013	None.
Summer 2013	None.
Fall 2013	None.
Spring 2014	None.		