GET CONNECTED!

As a Baylor parent, you are automatically a member of the Parents Network—no fees or dues required. Read on to learn about the different ways you can participate in the Parents Network and make valuable connections with other Baylor families in your community.

PRAYER. Praying for our students is one of the most important ways we can support them. 1st Call to Prayer is an opportunity to meet other Baylor parents and encourage one another while covering our Baylor students, faculty and administration in prayer. 1st Call is hosted by local Parents Network chapters and meets monthly. All parents are welcome to submit prayer requests or praises online. Just visit the Parents Network website and find the “1st Call to Prayer” tab.

SUPPORT NETWORKS. Parents Network chapters—in more than 30 cities and areas throughout the United States—serve as a hometown connection to Baylor University. We encourage our chapters to partner with other local Baylor groups such as the Baylor Women’s Network and the Baylor Business Network to plan and host hometown Baylor events.

Baylor Parents Network chapter events and activities may include:
- Summer send-off parties for Baylor students and their parents;
- Bear Care packaging parties;
- 1st Call to Prayer; and/or
- Watch parties for athletic events.

If you desire to become more involved in your local Baylor Parents Network chapter or if your community does not have a chapter and you would like to begin one, please contact us at parentsnetwork@baylor.edu or 1-888-287-5557.

COMMUNICATION. Perspectives, our Parents Network e-newsletter, is a publication just for Baylor parents. We report the latest news, provide helpful tips and share inspiring stories from campus (and beyond!). All parents of undergraduate students (for whom we have a valid e-mail address) automatically receive the newsletter via e-mail. You can read Perspectives online or browse past issues by visiting the Parents Network website and clicking on the Perspectives e-newsletter tab.

CHALLENGES

Time Management The start of a new year can be an exciting whirlwind, and students are sometimes caught off guard by the demands of classwork, activities and friends. An academic advisor or mentor at the Paul L. Foster Success Center can help them plan and develop time management strategies for success.

Lasting Friendships Baylor students build friendships that last a lifetime, but the social aspect of college can be intimidating at first to some students. A little initiative can go a long way. Encourage your student to get involved in events or organizations early, communicate with their fellow classmates and talk to organizational leaders to get plugged in.

OPPORTUNITIES

Welcome Week Long after they’ve graduated, Baylor alums still remember their Welcome Week experience. Welcome Week is the official beginning to your student’s Baylor experience, connecting them to their classmates and introducing them to what it means to be part of the Baylor Family. Lasting friendships and a love for Baylor grow from this foundational time for incoming students.

Late Night at the SLC A favorite tradition at the beginning of each new school year, Late Night is a great opportunity to have fun and get connected. In addition to games, music and free food, students can discover organizations, clubs and interest groups that will encourage them to get involved, connect with others who have similar interests and enhance their time at Baylor.

BEST VALUE For the sixth year in a row, Baylor was named a top 100 “best value” among private colleges by Kiplinger’s Personal Finance. Additionally, Baylor’s Hankamer School of Business and Baylor Law were named best values among business and law schools nationwide.

CHALLENGES

Roommate Etiquette Amidst the challenges of a new year, it is important for students to keep their roommate in mind. All students should feel comfortable studying or relaxing in their home. Encourage students to start the conversation early about expectations and pet peeves to be sensitive to the other person’s needs.

Fighting Homesickness As the semester progresses, your student may become homesick. While this is perfectly normal, encourage them to get involved in fun and beneficial ways. Whether it’s attending a football game with hallmates or talking to a favorite professor about professional organizations, Baylor offers numerous ways for students to find a niche in their home away from home.

OPPORTUNITIES

Mapping Out Success Prioritizing academic demands can sometimes be mysterious. How can your student discover what it takes to be successful? That’s where the MAP-Works assessment comes in. Encourage your student to take the MAP-Works assessment between Sept. 10 and Oct. 6 to discover how to make their behavior match their academic aspirations. Learn more at baylor.edu/map-works.

Family Weekend Experience Baylor with your student! Come and see firsthand what Baylor campus life is like. Family Weekend is the perfect chance to discover the community your student enjoys daily, meet faculty, explore our beautiful campus and return home with a better understanding that brings you closer to Baylor, no matter how far away you may live. Learn more at baylor.edu/familyweekend.

Encourage Your Student
If you hear names like Hankamer, Browning and Penland on a pair of TV dramas, it’s not a coincidence. Chicago Fire and Chicago P.D. both air on NBC and were co-created by Baylor alums Derek Haas and Michael Brandt, who honor their alma mater through character names.
CHALLENGES

Midterms Ahead  October is an exciting month filled with football games and other fall festivities, but it is important that your student does not lose sight of academics. Midterms are right around the corner. Keeping those tests in sight can help your student stay on track with their academic goals.

Christian Care  Baylor’s Christian environment is one of the University’s most distinct attributes. This important element can be particularly meaningful when a student has questions, or experiences a struggle in their life. Baylor Spiritual Life provides opportunities for students to visit with compassionate chaplains rooted in faith and committed to care when help is needed. Most residence halls have Chaplains in residence who are prepared to help.

OPPORTUNITIES

Professional Development Class  Your student needs to take steps towards finding a job after graduation—so why not get class credit for doing so? Baylor offers a Professional Development Class where résumés, interview techniques, networking and more are covered to help your student find success after Baylor. Students enroll through class registration.

Homecoming  Baylor Homecoming is widely recognized as the first in the nation, and over the last 105 years, we’ve shared traditions like Pigskin Revue or the nation’s largest collegiate homecoming parade with generations of Bears—and 2014 gives homecoming a whole new meaning, as Baylor Football has returned to campus at McLane Stadium. Learn more at baylor.edu/homecoming.
BAYLOR PLaid Green and gold now comes with a twist: last year, Baylor released an official plaid. Designed and marketed by Baylor students and alums, the plaid appears on both ties and scarves for men and women, and is available at dapperbearclothiers.com.

CHALLENGES

Finish Strong  The temptation is there—skipping class seems so harmless in the moment. Fatigue, projects from other classes, or the distractions of clubs or organizations can cause a student to believe that he or she deserves a skip. But now is not the time to fall behind. Find a way to encourage your student to finish strong—the reward of Christmas break is not far away!

Eat Right  No doubt about it: it’s easy to build bad eating habits in college. Luckily, your student has plenty of options for healthy eating on campus. Baylor Dining has a “healthy for life” philosophy and offers numerous healthy (and tasty) dining options at halls across campus every day. A good diet supports overall well-being, so encourage your student to take advantage of Baylor’s healthy options so they’ll perform at their best!

OPPORTUNITIES

Serving Locally  Baylor students are known for caring for the community year-round, but twice each year, there’s a special day for Bears by the thousands to join forces and volunteer. Baylor’s largest community service event, Steppin’ Out partners with a variety of organizations throughout Waco and places students in locations they can help each November and April.

Serving Globally  Your student’s calling is more than a career. Their God-given interests and abilities can be used to serve. Baylor Missions offers discipline-specific missions trips around the globe, where students can apply their career aspirations in Christian service. With the December 3 registration deadline approaching, now is the time for your student to join a summer 2015 mission trip. Visit baylor.edu/missions.

Jack Lummus gave his life leading a charge in the Battle of Iwo Jima in World War II; John “Killer” Kane led a daring air raid to cut off Nazi fuel supplies. Baylor is believed to be the only university to have two former athletes win the Congressional Medal of Honor.

CHALLENGES

The Christmas Conversation. An estimated 75 percent of college students change their major at least once in college. Help guide your freshman student with “The Christmas Conversation” during the break. Discuss his or her major and if they need to switch. Changing a major earlier can help avoid additional semesters (or years) down the road. Learn more about “How to graduate in four years” at the Baylor YouTube channel.

Christmas Break. They’ve finally made it! Whether it’s your student’s first semester or their last, everyone needs a little time to unwind after a long semester. As the break begins, allow your student to rest and relax amidst the holiday traditions. Talk about plans and expectations for the break so you can both be on the same page.

OPPORTUNITIES

Christmas on 5th Street. Nothing else signals the start of the Christmas season at Baylor University quite like Christmas on 5th. The Christmas tree lighting, music, crafts, rides and the always-popular petting zoo make for a special time for Baylor students, parents and the community to celebrate the season.

Greek Life. For many Baylor students, their return to campus in January means rushing a Greek organization. While students choose many different routes for meaningful involvement at Baylor, Greek organizations can be a place for students to make friends, serve the community and build leadership skills.
Santa’s Workshop, an annual Baylor event that spreads Christmas cheer to area children, continues to grow. Last year, hundreds of Central Texas children came to campus to make crafts, meet Santa and receive a gift—leaving not only with a present, but with love and care from Baylor student volunteers.
CHALLENGES
A Successful Start. A new semester means new classes and commitments. The Paul L. Foster Success Center is here to help your student build a foundation for success. To learn more about the programs offered to your student, visit baylor.edu/successcenter

Healthy Habits. Christmas and New Year’s have passed, but the effects of turkey, cookies and snacks could linger. Your student can follow through on that New Year’s resolution to work out at the McLane Student Life Center, utilizing a vast array of treadmills and weight machines, taking Bearobics or Bear Cycle classes or playing basketball or other sports.

OPPORTUNITIES
The Right Major. Choosing a major isn’t always as simple as it sounds. The Office of Career and Professional Development offers resources to help your student choose the major that’s best for him or her, utilizing skill inventories, personal conversation, lifestyle expectation, salary information and more. The Career and Professional Development website also offers “Meet the Majors” podcasts and other resources for your student to explore.

The Right Classes. University Advisement can help students find classes and develop an academic plan that will meet not just requirements, but help them fulfill their goals. Your student doesn’t need to guess which classes to take. University Advisement’s experienced advisors are here to help.
PRO FUTURIS  “The world needs a preeminent research university that is unambiguously Christian.” That foundational conviction is evident throughout Pro Futuris, Baylor’s strategic vision for the future. Last year, Baylor embarked on a number of Five-Year Goals that will enhance the Baylor experience for students—both in the years ahead, and for generations to come. Learn more at baylor.edu/profuturis.

Always Your Valentine Heart shaped candies, flowers and stuffed bears—oh my! Valentines day is special for many students, but not everyone feels the love. Let your student know you love them with a card or special goodies and encourage them to celebrate with a group of close friends.

Internships Internships are not only an integral part of preparing for a career; they can also lead directly to a job. What internship is right for your student, and how can he or she stand out from the crowd? A visit to Baylor Career and Professional Development can answer those questions and more. Visit baylor.edu/cpd.

OPPORTUNITIES

Sing Bright lights, sold out crowds and a display of talent unparalleled at other universities—yes, Sing is a Baylor tradition unlike any other. For more than six decades, generations of students have performed elaborate singing and dancing routines with memorable costumes and themes. Tickets go quickly, so plan early to join your student and share in the fun.

Bearathon It’s called “the toughest half-marathon in Texas”—Bearathon, taking place March 21, runs from campus through downtown, up and down the hills of Cameron Park and back. But that challenge brings great reward—the funds raised support scholarships through Student Foundation! If you or your student are running, keep training and preparing. That hard work will pay off for you and for future Baylor students.

FROM BAYLOR TO SMITHSONIAN
The Black Gospel Music Restoration Project, formed at Baylor and maintained by Baylor Libraries, has been selected by the Smithsonian Institution as a permanent fixture at the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C. The Black Gospel Music Restoration Project transfers black gospel music from old records into digital form to preserve this significant sound for future generations.

CHALLENGES
Planning Ahead: Registration is just around the corner. Your student has decisions to make for the year ahead; let them know they’re not on their own. University Advisement could help your student focus on what’s important to fulfill their academic goals and professional aspirations.

A Safe Spring Break: Students have their sights set on spring break, which could take your student to coastal climates, snow capped peaks or even foreign countries. Before their adventure begins, parents should remind them to use sound judgment, follow the buddy system and be aware of their surroundings, so that they are safe while flinging their green and gold afar.

OPPORTUNITIES
Sic ‘Em In The Spring: It’s March Madness time— and Baylor Nation has been treated to regular tournament runs by the Bears and Lady Bears. But spring also brings the chance to get out and cheer on our dominant tennis teams, as well as baseball, softball and more. Spring sports are a great way to take a break from studies, show school spirit and enjoy the warmer weather.

Outstanding Speakers: Baylor students are blessed to learn from many of the nation’s top leaders right here on campus. In recent years, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, Nobel Prize winning poet Seamus Heaney, Christian apologist and author Os Guinness and many others have visited Baylor. Encourage your student to attend lectures at Baylor’s “On Topic” Series, Beall Poetry Festival or other departments and venues on campus.

CONNECTED ALUMNI

There are many ways to stay connected to the Baylor Family. Whether you’re an alum, a family member or friend, you can stay connected online through our Baylor Facebook, Twitter and Instagram pages and the Baylor Proud blog (www.baylorproud.com). Baylor has been named among the top 20 social media colleges in the nation, thanks to the participation of our great Baylor Family.
CHALLENGES

Spring Cleaning College life requires your student to wear many hats. Unfortunately, “neat freak” probably isn’t one of them—and this may cause his or her living quarters to become quite cluttered. A little spring cleaning can go a long way toward making life around the dorm or apartment more livable, and your student may even find items to donate to charity.

Summer School There’s no better time to get caught up in classes than the summer. If your student is not on pace to graduate in four years, he or she can benefit from taking summer classes. Summer tuition costs less than the regular school year, and students can focus more on the classes they take, without the distraction of activities or a heavy workload. Registration is ongoing; learn more at baylor.edu/summer.

OPPORTUNITIES

Diadeloso There’s nothing like it anywhere else. Diadeloso, the Day of the Bear, is Baylor’s annual spring holiday and one of the University’s most enduring traditions. In addition to on-campus competitions and physical activities, students find great food, concerts and even a dog show. You never know what might be added to the list of activities! It’s a great day of fun before making the final push to finals.

StompFest What do you know about stepping? This form of dance expression is deeply rooted in the African-American community as a form of storytelling and entertainment, and StompFest brings it to campus in a fun, competitive format. Student groups, fraternities and sororities put their step skills to the test in this event that raises funds for charity.

CHALLENGES

Four-Year Plan  Students save both time and money by following a strict four-year graduation plan. At the end of each Spring semester, review whether or not your student is on track to graduate in four years. Did he or she advance 32 credit hours this year? Is summer school the right choice to catch up – or get ahead? Reviewing their progress once a year helps avoid that fifth year! Learn more about “How to graduate in four years” at the Baylor YouTube channel.

Have Some Fun  Saying goodbye to friends is never easy, even if it is only for the months between semesters. Encourage your student to spend quality time with their Baylor friends before leaving town for the summer, and take advantage of that time when tests are over.

OPPORTUNITIES

Young Grads’ Network  Your student spends a few years on campus, but a lifetime as an alum. The Young Grads’ Network connects graduates with other Baylor alumni no matter where their journey in life takes them. From mixers and watch parties to connections with older alums nationwide, the Young Grads’ Network is there for your recent graduate. Visit baylor.edu/network.

Seniors Giving Back  Your senior has left a lasting legacy at Baylor through his or her time on campus, a testament to your continued love and support. As your student graduates, one way to honor his or her unique time at Baylor is through a gift to the 2015 Class Scholarship Fund. It’s a way to support future Bears and honor your student’s legacy with the Class of 2015. A gift of any amount makes a huge difference for students. Visit baylor.edu/seniorclassgift.
CRAZY COMEBACKS  Baylor owns the records for largest comebacks in World Series history in both baseball and softball. The Bears rallied from a 7-0 hole to stun Tulane 8-7 in 2005 at the College World Series in Omaha. Last May, the Lady Bears roared back from the same deficit to defeat Kentucky 8-7 in the 2014 Women’s College World Series in Oklahoma City.
