Notes about major requirements:

- The student who pursues the anthropology major will be prepared to enter graduate study with sufficient training in basic areas of anthropology. It is suggested that the student take additional courses in related social, biological, and behavioral sciences.

- ANT Subfields: The student must complete a minimum of three upper level (3000-4000) semester hours in ANT from each of the following subfields: Cultural Anthropology, Archaeology, and Biological Anthropology. See your degree audit for course offerings in each subfield.

- English requirement: Freshman Academic Seminars (FAS 1302) may be substituted for ENG 1302. These seminars introduce first-year students to the world of academics and the scholarly community through exploration of topics of significant cultural/social importance. Emphasizes critical inquiry and thinking, research, writing, and problem solving. May substitute for a basic requirement on certain degrees only in the College of Arts & Sciences. Note: Students majoring in the sciences may take ENG 3300 instead of ENG 1304.

- Check your degree audit often through Bearweb to ensure that you are making timely progress toward your degree.

- For more information, see the undergraduate catalog.

Please see reverse side for important information on general requirements.
