Master of Economics
MSECO

Degree Requirements
Students may earn the Master of Science with a major in international economics by completing 30 hours of course work plus a six-hour special studies requirement described below.

36 semester hours total

Primary Core Courses 9 semester hours
ECO 5330 Problem Areas in International Economics
ECO 5333 Foreign Exchange Markets and International Monetary Institutions
ECO 5338 Seminar in World Economic Systems

Secondary Core Courses 12 semester hours
ECO 5001 Research Seminar
ECO 5002 Research Seminar
ECO 5310 Macroeconomics Analysis in the Global Economy
ECO 5315 Microeconomics Theory and Business Decisions
ECO 5343 History of Economic Thought
ECO 5347 Econometrics

Electives from the following 9 semester hours
ECO 5321 Energy Economics
BL 5305 Legal Aspects of Management Decisions
FIN 5331 Seminar in International Finance
FIN 5360 Seminar in Corporate Finance
FIN 5368 Seminar in Financial Markets
FIN 5370 Commercial Bank Management
ENV 5310 Agricultural Ecology
MIS 5315 Net Systems Development
PSC 5324 Seminar in Comparative Politics
PSC 5325 Seminar in International Relations
MKT 5315 Seminar in Comparative Marketing
MGT 5325 International Management

Special Studies 6 semester hours
After advisement, a student will choose one of the following options:

(a) BUS 5V98 Internship in International Business (requires a written report on at least three months of a supervised internship in the field of international economics)
(b) ECO 5V98 Master’s Thesis