

Answer the Call: Become a Community Leader!

Do you...

- like living on campus?
- love learning?
- want to serve others?
- have an active Christian faith that is evidenced by how you live your life?

Being a CL means...

- building meaningful relationships with individual residents.
- developing community on your hall and in your building.
- attending weekly meetings with your staff and your RHD.
- performing other additional administrative responsibilities.
- taking a Leadership Development Course in the Spring.
- receiving a full scholarship for room and board, a stipend (1st year CL: $400), and 11 meals a week at the dining halls.
- arriving on campus before the semesters start for CL Training and staying after finals to assist closing down the halls.
- assisting with coverage of halls during holidays.

Becoming a CL requires...

- filling out an application online by Wednesday, October 24th (www.baylor.edu/leadnow)
- attending a first round interview session (October 29th – November 8th)
- participating in a group process session (November 12th – 14th)
- Taking a Leadership Development Course in the Spring

*The candidate pool is narrowed down after both the first round interviews and group process sessions
