Student Health 101

The November 2010 issue includes: How to build a positive body image, six secrets to better roommate relations, and improve your days by shutting down at night. Check it out today at <http://readsh101.com/baylor.html>. For additional information, contact Lori_Genous@baylor.edu.

Healthy Monday Tip

Eat less, savor more. You don't have to cut out the foods you love to eat. Just cut down on your portion size and eat it less often. Make less food look like more by serving your meal on a salad or breakfast plate. Don't forget the Monday Mile at 12:15 p.m. on the Bear Trail. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/wellness.

THIS WEEK IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Issue of the Week: Campus Safety

Baylor Student Government wants your feedback. This week's survey deals with campus safety. Visit www.baylor.edu/sg, and click on the "Issue of the Week" icon on the homepage to fill out the survey, or look for student government members at tables around campus throughout the week.
