MEMBER SPOTLIGHTS

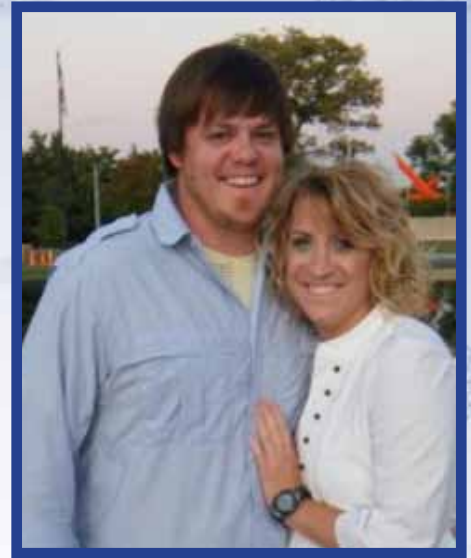

Jimmy Kohles

Undergraduate Institution: Biola University

Graduate Assistantship: Student Activities - Service Programming

Interesting Fact about yourself: I like zombie movies.

Favorite memory from HESA: Cohort Christmas

Jesse Hines

Undergraduate Institution: Georgetown College

Graduate Assistantship: New Student Programs

Interesting Fact about yourself: I'm one of those strange people that don't like PB&J sandwiches... just give me peanut butter... don't mess with the integrity of a simple PB sandwich.

Favorite memory from HESA: So many good memories, but my favorite has to be our cohort time at the ropes course when Laura showed off her superhuman strength.

Ida Jamshidi

Undergraduate Institution: Baylor University

Graduate Assistantship: Multicultural Affairs

Interesting Fact about yourself: I love cooking/baking and have a food blog called Love thy Kitchen (<http://love-thy-kitchen.blogspot.com/>).

Favorite memory from HESA: Bonding with my cohort girls over cooking and experiencing Baylor traditions like Christmas on 5th Street with them

HESA GSA NEWS

HESA-GSA is providing information to prospective new students via a HESA blog! HESA students are writing everyday to share their experiences leading up to Interview Placement weekend. Check it out at <http://homepages.baylor.edu/hesa/>. If you would like to share a piece of advice as a Baylor HESA alum, please contact Jesse_Hines@baylor.edu.
