RSVP for Baylor Business Women’s Recipe for Success with Young Chef’s Academy (YCA)
For additional information or to RSVP, visit www.baylor.edu/business/women. This event will be held on Tuesday, February 22, 5:30 p.m. in the Cashion Conference Room. Come hear how local Waconian’s, Julie Burleson and Suzy Nettles, founders of Young Chef’s Academy, started the first and fastest growing cooking school for children. YCA is now growing internationally and even was a promotional partner for Disney Pixar movie, Ratatouille. Dress is business casual.

Register for Outdoor Adventure Events
Wednesday, February 23: Kayak Rescue & Roll Clinic, 6-8:30 p.m. at the McLane Student Life Center Pool. The Outdoor Adventure staff will teach the basic bio-mechanics of how to upright your boat. Learn to paddle safer by staying dry and not having to swim in the event of an unplanned capsize. This is an invaluable skill on the ocean and in the whitewater setting. Come learn in a safe, encouraging, and supporting environment in a heated pool. The cost of $10 includes all equipment. The deadline to register is Tuesday, February 22.
Saturday, February 26: Kids Climbing Workshop, 9:30-11:30 a.m. at the McLane Student Life Center ROCK. This event is open to students, faculty, and staff who have children. The cost is $15. Have your kids ever begged you to go climb at the Rock in the SLC? This workshop will help establish the basic fundamentals of climbing in a highly interactive workshop for children in first grade through 16 years old. You may register at the McLane Student Life front desk. For additional information, visit, www.baylor.edu/campusrec/oa.

THIS WEEK IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Interested in Serving Your Fellow Students and the Baylor Community?
Student Government elections are coming up in April. A general interest meeting for those thinking of running for office will be held on Tuesday, February 22, 6 p.m. in the Baines Room of the SUB. For additional information, contact Luke_Womble@baylor.edu or visit www.baylor.edu/sg.

What Changes Will You Help Come to Life?
Can you imagine the Baylor campus without the Baylor Sciences Building? What about your Baylor experience without Baylor Line Camp, the Stacy Riddle Forum, or the Intramural Field Complex? These are just a few of the changes Baylor students have seen within the last ten years. What do you think should be next? Let us know, we’re listening. For a list of ways to give your input, visit www.baylor.edu/sg. For additional information, contact Cristina_Galvan@baylor.edu.

Government Graffiti
Where would you like to see Baylor in the next ten years. Jot down your thoughts on the giant chalkboard located in the SUB Den (in front of the Ticket Office). This is one way in which Student Government will be collecting student input for Baylor's Strategic Plan.

Box Tops Due This Week
You still have a chance to turn in Box Tops. The Box Tops submission deadline has been extended to Friday, February 25. You may turn in your Box Tops to collection boxes located in campus residence halls or drop them off at the Student Government office. Funds will be used towards purchasing books for the library of J.H. Hines Elementary School. For a full list of participating Box Tops products, visit www.btfe.com. For additional information, contact Cristina_Galvan@baylor.edu.

Healthy Monday Tip
Never be fruitless. Make healthy eating easy by keeping the tools you need close at hand. Have a fruit bowl on your counter at home, stash nuts or dried fruit in your desk or keep pre-washed and cut carrots, peppers, and broccoli crowns in your fridge for a quick snack. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/wellness.
