Baylor Counseling Center's Mood Disorders Workshop

Do you or someone you love suffer from Major Depressive Disorder or a Bipolar Spectrum Disorder? Confusion and stigma often surround the diagnosis of depression or bipolar disorder. The Baylor Counseling Center is providing an informative workshop to teach about the realities of these illnesses. Come find answers to some common questions, such as What is the meaning of a diagnosis? What are treatment options? Are medications necessary? How can I manage my own symptoms? How can I manage this illness and college? and How can I support my friend or family member?

This one-day workshop will be held on Monday, February 28, 2-3:30 p.m. in the Baylor Counseling Center Conference Room. The workshop is facilitated by Dr. Chen, Counseling Center psychiatrist, and Crystal Lee, M.S., graduate assistant counselor. For additional information, contact Crystal_Lee1@baylor.edu.

Campus Kitchens Community Garden Training

Monday, February 28, 5 p.m. in the Garden at 9th Street and James. Anyone interested in volunteering with Baylor's Community Garden must attend this training session.
