

Kathy Wills Wright
Senior Vice President
Office of Strategic Initiatives and Partnerships
Baylor University

Kathy Wills Wright has a diverse background in politics and public relations, as well as in education and marketing. She is the past President of the Legacy Educational Foundation, a compassionate conservative political education organization as well as a fundraising consultant.

During the President George W. Bush administration, she has served as the Special Assistant to the President and Acting Director and Deputy Director of the USA Freedom Corps at the White House, an office created to promote and expand volunteer service in America. Prior to serving in this capacity, Ms. Wright served as the Special Assistant to the President for Legislation and Policy in the White House Office of Faith-Based & Community Initiatives where she supported efforts to advance effective social service programs across the nation and the globe.

Ms. Wright served at the United States Department of State as the Senior Advisor to the Secretary (General Colin Powell) and the White House Liaison where she advised the Secretary on Presidential appointments, ambassadorships, boards, commissions, and UN delegations. Prior to her position at the Department of State, Ms. Wright served as the Director of Communications at the Dallas Theological Seminary (DTS). At DTS, Ms. Wright directed the graduate institutes media relations, web design, publications, and marketing. She also was Director for Marketing at Thomas Nelson Publishers in Nashville, Tennessee and Vice President of Public Affairs for United Seniors Association in Virginia.

During the Administration of President George H.W. Bush, Ms. Wright was the West Wing Receptionist at the White House in the Immediate Office of the President and then served as the White House Liaison to the United States Department of Transportation.

A native of Texas, Ms. Wright holds an undergraduate and masters degree from Baylor University. She is married to Dr. Don Wright, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Healthcare Quality at the Department of Health and Human Services in Washington D.C. The Wrights reside in Arlington, Virginia.