Capstone Experience

Computer Science Proposal
Advocates Board Meeting
October 8, 2004
CSI 4390

- A semester long project course in which students will create a computing system. The project requires applying information technology according to established design management practices, including technical presentations (oral and written) by all students.
Objectives

- Create a senior-level artifact
- Apply technologies not covered in class
- Demonstrate core computer competency
- Apply time, personnel and financial management techniques
- Oral and written presentation
Requirements

- C or better in CSI 4390
- Petition possibilities
  - Honor’s Project
  - Internship
  - Research Project
  - Other?
Conclusion

- EGO’s 1,2,3,4,7,8 & 9
- Example syllabus under construction
- Available soon!