Prepare for the Be the Change Missions Conference

Be the Change, held on Wednesday, September 28, to Saturday, October 1, is an annual student-led event designed to offer the Baylor community an intentional look at how God is working around the globe. Be the Change provides numerous learning opportunities including a keynote speaker, breakout sessions, guest mission practitioners, missions organizations, and cross-culture events. This year's Be the Change will focus on Engaging in Justice. Come and learn the meaning of biblical justice and ways you can practically apply this to your life. There will be giveaways for students who participate in this year's conference. Receive a punch card at the beginning of week, attend four or more events that are on the schedule, get your card punched at the end of the event, and enter to win a Kindle, one of three pairs of TOMS, or a Common Grounds care package at the end of the day on Saturday. (You must be present in order to win.) Look for the Be the Change table in the SUB and Chapel or in Penland and Memorial during lunch to receive your personal Be the Change punch card or stop by the Spiritual Life office. For additional information or for a complete schedule of events, contact Heather_Mustain@baylor.edu or visit www.baylor.edu/missions.
