Baylor University

Graduate Assistantship in Bassoon

Master of Music in Bassoon Performance

2012-2013 Academic Year

Responsibilities:
Teach applied students and/or methods class:
Perform in regularly-scheduled chamber music classes; assist with departmental or research duties; or assist in the instrumental division.

Performance Opportunities:
Recitals; Chamber Music; Baylor Symphony; Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, and Jazz Ensembles; regional orchestras.

Stipend and Tuition Remission:
Stipends and tuition remission combine for a total up to $25,290 for a full assistantship for two semesters. The full-time graduate assistantship tuition waiver covers all 30 hours of the degree, except for remedial courses in music history and music theory. The stipend is awarded for eight months and provides the student with approximately $830 per month for expenses. Assistantships are renewable for a second year. Partial assistantships may be offered.

Application Procedures:
Write immediately for application forms, audition materials and other information to:

Dr. David Music, Director of Graduate Studies
School of Music, One Bear Place Box 97408
Baylor University
Waco, Texas 76798
E-mail: David_Music@baylor.edu

At This Time, Please Notify and Send Recording To:

Ms. Ann Shoemaker
Lecturer of Bassoon
School of Music, One Bear Place Box 97408
Baylor University
Waco, Texas 76798
Email: Ann_Shoemaker@baylor.edu
http://www.baylor.edu/music

Applicants must qualify for admission to the Graduate School in order to qualify for an assistantship. The Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is not required for performance majors. Official notice of graduate assistantships in the School of Music for 2011-2012 will be made in writing by the Directory of Graduate Studies by April 2, 2011.

_Baylor University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer._