The Phoenix Submissions

The Phoenix, a student-run magazine of Baylor University, has been a forum for students to publish their literary and artistic work for over 50 years. Each year, the magazine publishes a variety of original, unpublished pieces produced by undergraduate and graduate students of all majors and concentrations, including poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction, drawings, photography, and lithography. Fiction and non-fiction include satire, short stories, screenplay excerpts, feature pieces, and profiles. Art includes drawing, lithography, intaglio printing, painting, sculpture. Submissions are reviewed by an editorial panel of students in each category, and every piece receives detailed consideration, whether or not it is accepted for publication. The Phoenix also offers a $75 prize to the top submissions in fiction, poetry, and art, as voted on by the editorial panel and chosen by an outside judge. All submissions are due Friday, January 20, 2012. For additional information, call Dr. Coretta Pittman at 254-710-6980 or contact John_McEntire@baylor.edu.

This Week in Service

Turkeypalooza 2011

The Campus Kitchen Program is collecting 100 Thanksgiving baskets for local families in need. Join them by donating the following: 1 turkey, 2 cans of cranberry sauce, 4 cans of corn, 4 cans of green beans, rolls, 2 boxes of stuffing, 1 pie or $40 to sponsor one basket. All donations can be dropped off at the Service & Learning Office on the 1st floor of the SUB until Tuesday, November 15. For additional information, contact Ben_Belz@baylor.edu.

Healthy Monday Tip

Scare up some active fun. Halloween can be a sweet holiday or a caloric nightmare. Balance the good with the bad today by thinking before you bite and enjoying outdoor activities. Try building a scarecrow with your kids, picking apples, or attending local Halloween activities like parades or haunted houses. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/wellness.
