The Phoenix Submissions
The Phoenix, a student-run magazine of Baylor University, has been a forum for students to publish their literary and artistic work for over 50 years. Each year, the magazine publishes a variety of original, unpublished pieces produced by undergraduate and graduate students of all majors and concentrations, including poetry, fiction, creative nonfiction, drawings, photography, and lithography. Fiction and non-fiction include satire, short stories, screenplay excerpts, feature pieces, and profiles. Art includes drawing, lithography, intaglio printing, painting, sculpture. Submissions are reviewed by an editorial panel of students in each category, and every piece receives detailed consideration, whether or not it is accepted for publication. The Phoenix also offers a $75 prize to the top submissions in fiction, poetry, and art, as voted on by the editorial panel and chosen by an outside judge. All submissions are due Friday, January 20, 2012. For additional information, contact John_McEntire@baylor.edu.

This Week in Service

Turkeypalooza 2011
Campus Kitchen is assembling 100 Thanksgiving baskets for local families in need. To donate, bring 2 cans of cranberry sauce, 4 cans of corn, 4 cans of green beans, rolls, and 2 boxes of stuffing or a donation of $40 for a full basket to the Service Learning Office in the SUB. For additional information, contact Lindsey_Warner@baylor.edu.

National Homelessness & Hunger Awareness Week
Community Engagement, Service, & Scholarship will be hosting a letter writing station to send to local representatives to raise awareness regarding the issue homelessness and hunger in Texas. Tables will be located in the McLane Student Life Center and the School of Social Work. For additional information, contact Lindsey_Warner@baylor.edu.

Healthy Monday Tip
Thyme is on your side. Instead of heavy sauces, butter, and marinades, flavor foods with spices and other low-fat, low-sodium seasonings. Try rosemary, basil, or red pepper on some of your favorite foods this week for a new, healthy twist. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/wellness.

Hot Opportunities

The Multicultural Leadership Cabinet Applications

Applications are available in the Multicultural Affairs office or in the SUB, Room 212. The Multicultural Leadership Cabinet is looking for 12 committed and highly motivated student leaders. The Cabinet serves as the advisory board for Multicultural Affairs, encourages and facilitates collaboration between organizations, assists organizations with recruitment and retention of members, and oversees the $10,000 Leadership Conference Travel Fund. Applications are due Monday, November 21. For additional information, contact Kim_Marmon@baylor.edu.

2012 Multicultural Student Leadership Summit Call for Programs Now Open

The planning committee for MSLS 2012 wants to hear about successful collaborative efforts across campus and your ideas on how to best celebrate leadership in a diverse world. Staff and/or student presenters are welcome and encouraged to submit program proposals. This conference serves not only Baylor students, but student leaders from across the state and region. The summit planning committee will give preference to program submissions that incorporate cultural identity themes into sessions that focus on student development, organizational leadership, and relationship building. Educational program sessions are 50 minutes in length. The conference sessions should provide information for students, advisors, and faculty/staff from all institutional types. The Proposal submission form is available online at www.baylor.edu/multicultural/index.php?id=66169. For additional information, contact Erin_Payne@baylor.edu or Kelley_Kimple@baylor.edu.
