Pipe Organ Encounter

A Hands-On Introduction to the Pipe Organ for Pianists and Organists, 13-18

June 3 - 9, 2012
Waco, Texas

Pipe Organ Encounters are an educational outreach program of the American Guild of Organists. Major funding for Pipe Organ Encounters is provided by the Associated Pipe Organ Builders of America. Additional support is provided by the American Institute of Organbuilders. Permanently endowed AGO scholarships are provided in memory of Charlene Brice Alexander, Robert S. Baker, Seth Bingham, Clarence Dickinson, Philip Hahn, Charles N. Henderson, Alfred E. Lunsford, Ruth Milliken, Ned Siebert, and Martin M. Wick; and in honor of Anthony Baglivi, Philip E. Baker, Morgan and Mary Simmons, and the Leupold Foundation.

Join us in central Texas for a week of studying and exploring the wonderful world of the pipe organ! Begin or improve your ability as an organist with an in-depth look at the "King of Instruments."

FACULTY

The Pipe Organ Encounter is under the direction of Dr. Joyce Jones, internationally acclaimed concert organist, recording artist, and composer, who is the Joyce Oliver Bowden Professor of Organ and Organist-in-Residence at Baylor University. The faculty will also include Stephen Morris and other highly qualified teachers and performers.

INSTRUMENTS

Lessons, recitals, and group sessions will be held at Baylor University, which has some of the finest pipe organs in central Texas. The eleven organs at Baylor University include a 92-rank, 4-manual Petty-Madden, two Ruffatti organs, and two Létourneau organs: a 39-rank, 3-manual tracker in Markham Studio and the 59-rank, 3-manual instrument in Powell Chapel at Truett Seminary, as well as the new 4-manual Walker in Waco Hall.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Housing Sunday through Saturday noon will be at Baylor University in double rooms with shared baths. All rooms are air-conditioned. The dormitory counselors are carefully selected, responsible Baylor music majors.

All meals from Sunday night through Saturday morning are included in the residential participant fee.

Check-in on Sunday, June 3, is from 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., and on Monday, June 4, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

The Pipe Organ Encounter ends with a recital by participants at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, June 9.
