Urban Missions Book Drive November 21-December 2
You may drop off your donation of any book for boys and girls ages 5-12 in the children’s bookcase located in the Bobo Spiritual Life Center. Do you think your life would have been different if you had grown up in a home without books? Many of us have always had access to books but there are many children who do not have that privilege. For additional information, visit Carole_Meriwether@baylor.edu.

CASA Toy Drive November 21-December 12
Omega Delta Phi is hosting a toy drive for the local Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) branch. You may drop off your donations in the SUB, Baylor Sciences Building, Moody Library, Penland Dining Hall, and Memorial Dining Hall. All toys and proceeds will go to the children of CASA. For additional information, contact Andrew_Corrales@baylor.edu.

Nutrition Tip
Did you know that popcorn is a whole grain? Popcorn can be turned into a healthy snack by making it homemade with little to no added salt or butter. For additional information or to make an appointment for a free consultation, contact Bekka_Limon@baylor.edu or visit www.baylor.edu/campusrec/fitness.

BIPI Internships
The Baylor Interdisciplinary Poverty Initiative's eight to ten week summer internships and fellowships are available to Baylor undergraduates who propose substantive projects designed to address social concerns locally, nationally, and globally. Internships have been posted at Sseko Sandals and the African Wildlife Foundation. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/student_life/index.php?id=85488.

POV Minor
New minor offered in Poverty Studies and Social Justice. This minor is the foundation to the mission and focus of BIPI and the can be found under The School of Social Work section in Baylor’s catalog. The POV minor is available to all students, from all academic disciplines, ideally to students interested in working to alleviate poverty. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/student_life/index.php?id=85468.
Healthy Monday Tip

Fill up on family. Avoid overeating by using Thanksgiving to catch up with relatives. Step away from the turkey and chat with your family, or work off some stuffing by going for a post dinner walk, playing tag with children, or starting a game of touch football. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/wellness.
