Dinner Honoring International Students and Scholars

Please see Nancy McKinney's recap of the Round Table International Thanksgiving Dinner in the document attached to this email.

Thank You from Melanie Smith and the CIE Staff

The Center for International Education thanks Round Table for the beautiful job done with the Thanksgiving Dinner honoring Baylor's international students. The Round Table committee did an excellent job and the international students enjoyed the inspiration of the Thanksgiving season.

Cookbooks Available at December Program

Carolyn Keathley will be selling Round Table cookbooks at the Christmas luncheon on December 6. Cookbooks that have already been paid for will also be available for pick up at that time. If you'd like to purchase a cookbook after the luncheon, contact Carolyn or Lois Ferguson (Lois_Ferguson@baylor.edu) to make arrangements.

Carolyn says the cookbook has received rave reviews from those who have already tried some of the recipes. This high praise has come from non-Round Table members, too.

One-Time Only Interest Group Opportunity

The Interest Group Committee is thrilled to announce a new opportunity for us to discuss a valuable topic, sustainable living. Julie Covington and I have met with Brooklynn Wynveen regarding her research in this area and hope you will all find time to attend. Please see the following note for more information.

Thanks!

SAVE THE DATE!

Ladies, I wanted to write and tell you about an upcoming event. It's a one-time only interest-group designed to help you live a lifestyle that is smarter, more balanced—in short, more sustainable. And by sustainable, we're not just talking about environmentally-friendly. A sustainable lifestyle is one that is deeply satisfying, fulfilling, and appealing because it is socially, economically, and environmentally responsible. It's about decisions that you make on a daily basis, at work and at home. So, make plans to fellowship with your fellow Round Table members, and learn more about how sustainable living applies to you. See event details below, and watch for more information to come. We hope to see you there!

What: Sustainable Living Seminar

Where: West Waco Library (5301 Bosque Blvd., Suite 275) Community Meeting Room

When: January 17, 6:30-8:00 p.m. (but come early at 6:00 for refreshments)
