

On the Baylor Horizon.....a publication of the Division of Student Life

Association of Black Students Meeting

Monday, April 16, 5 p.m. in the Houston Room of the SUB. Come out to the last meeting of the year. There will be elections for next year's officers. Everyone is welcome. For additional information, contact Eboni_Cleveland@baylor.edu.

Baylor Missions Hosting Mission Trip Photography Training Seminar

Monday, April 16, 6 p.m. in the Bobo Spiritual Life Center. This seminar will focus upon the ethics of photography in an unknown setting, as well as some of the techniques to best capture and capitalize on your experience. Appropriate and effective forms of display will also be shared to best represent the experience. Seminar is open to all students and will be beneficial to anyone interested in photography. For additional information, contact Adam_Velez@baylor.edu.

Baylor Pre-Physician Assistant Society's Who's Who in the Medical Field?

Monday, April 16, 6:30 p.m. in the Baylor Science's Building, Room D110. Learn about all the roles of different healthcare professions and how they work together. There will be a panel including a physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, and nurse from Scott & White. For additional information, contact Brittany_Daily@baylor.edu.

Campus-Wide Open Forum

Monday, April 16, 7:30-9 p.m. in the North Village Community Center. The Office of the Vice President for Student Life invites you to an open forum. This student-led conversation will be an opportunity for you to suggest topics for discussion in next semester's Discerning Dialogues. The discerning dialogues program will foster constructive conversations around the meaningful, substantive topics you suggest. More information regarding the goals and purpose of the dialogues will be discussed at the event. For additional information, contact Adam_Visconti@baylor.edu.

Encourage Our Summer Mission Teams

Tuesday, April 17, 1-5 p.m. in the Bobo Spiritual Life Center, and Thursday, April 19, at Diadeloso. We have 12 mission teams going all over the world this summer. This is your chance to write an encouragement letter, a silly note, or just provide a scripture or prayer for them. For additional information contact Adam_Velez@baylor.edu.

W.R. Poage Spring Lecture Featuring Chet Edwards

Tuesday, April 17, 4 p.m. in Bennett Auditorium. Today's headlines offer myriad assessments of "what's wrong" with Washington, but little is said in the public square about what is right with America. Join Chet Edwards, the W. R. Poage Distinguished Chair for Public Service, as he delivers the 2012 W. R. Poage Annual Spring Lecture. There will be a reception following the lecture and an opportunity to visit with Mr. Edwards. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/lib/poage/lecture.

Passport to Waco Featured Local Business: Metro Restaurant

Metro offers a unique "New York style" scene to the Waco eating spots. Metro offers snazzy sandwiches, a variety of fancy hot dogs, as well as a few pasta dishes. Grab a bite to eat and get your Passport stamped. For additional information, contact Angela_Gray@baylor.edu.

Passport to Waco Featured Local Business: Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum

Seniors, you can't leave Waco without saying that you have been to the famous Texas Ranger Museum. The place is continually ranked as one of the best overall museums in Texas. Stop by to take a quick tour of the museum, and get your passport stamped. For additional information, contact Angela_Gray@baylor.edu.

Peer Nutrition Educators

Next time you want something sweet after eating lunch, try a piece of fruit. Try grabbing a tangerine, banana, or grapes from the salad bar in the dining halls. Individual containers of fruits like peaches or applesauce are easy and convenient options while on the go. If you are interested in learning more about nutrition, contact Bekka_Limon@baylor.edu to set up an appointment with one of the Peer Nutrition Educators, or sign up on the 3rd floor of the McLane Student Life Center, Room 305.
