BAYLOR EXPERIENCED

A Conversation with President Ken Starr,
Dr. Bill Hillis, and Dr. Joyce Jones
Honoring the Retirees of 2012

Wednesday, April 25, 2012
Barfield Drawing Room

Refreshments/Reception at 3:30
Program begins at 3:45

In past years the university president has given a State of the University Address and has recognized retirees. This year, we are trying a different format. Rather than doing all the talking, President Starr wanted to do some listening. We will begin our meeting with recognition of our retiring faculty, who have a cumulative experience of over two centuries of service to Baylor. Then President Starr will sit down for a conversation with two of our retirees with the longest association with Baylor: Bill Hillis, The Cornelia Marschall Smith Distinguished Professor of Biology and Joyce Jones, The Joyce Bowden Professor of Music. They will join President Starr in a conversation about Baylor’s future as it builds upon the foundation that has been laid by those who have gone before. Join us in recognizing the contributions of our retiring faculty, and enter into a conversation about Baylor Experienced. A Q&A with the panel will follow.
