

Occasional Lectures or Consultations by J-1 Scholars

International Student and Scholar Services (IS3)

This handout is designed for J-1 professors, research scholars, and short-term scholars (henceforth, "scholars"). It will explain the regulations which permit J-1 scholars to participate in occasional lectures and short-term consultations.

Your J-1 Responsible Officer

To work for any organization other than Baylor University in the position described on your DS-2019 form, you must first obtain approval in writing from your J-1 Responsible/Alternate Responsible Officer (RO/ARO), who represents your J-1 sponsor and issues your Form DS-2019. The RO/ARO must evaluate the proposed occasional lectures or consultations in terms of your program objectives, and then decide whether or not it would be appropriate. For most J-1 scholars at Baylor, the University is your sponsor and your J-1 RO/ARO is one of the advisers at International Student and Scholar Services (IS3). If your J-1 sponsor is an agency (e.g. 11E), and if you are uncertain how to reach your J-1 RO/ARO, an ISSS adviser will help you find out, but the Baylor RO/ARO has no authority to grant permission for you to accept an occasional lecture or consultation opportunity.

Conditions

The term occasional refers to a single events rather than an ongoing activity. To ensure that "occasional lectures or short-term consultations" do not interfere with and are in keeping with the activities of your J-1 program, they:

1. must be directly related to the objectives of your Exchange Visitor program;
2. must be incidental to your primary program activities; and
3. must not delay the completion of your Exchange Visitor program.

Procedures

To obtain authorization for occasional lectures or consultations, you should present the following to your RO/ARO:

1. A copy of your letter of offer from the prospective employer describing the terms and conditions of the proposed lecture or consultation, dates, number of hours, the field or subject, amount of compensation, a brief description of the activity, and the location of the activity
2. A completed J-1Scholar Occasional Lecture Recommendation and Request Form (by your department head/supervisor and you)
3. A copy of your immigration documents: passport (bi data, photo, & expiration date pages), front and back of 1-94 card, and DS-2019

If your J-1 RO/ARO approves your proposed occasional lecture or consultation, he or she will authorize it in writing (on IS3 letterhead). Again, the written authorization must be secured prior to starting the occasional lecture or consultation.

Authorization to Work

If your RO/ARO approves you to participate in an occasional lecture or consultation, you will be working not as an employee but as an independent contractor, meaning that you will not have a sustained employer-employee relationship with the person or institution paying you, and will not complete Form 1-9, "Employment Eligibility Verification," in order to start work. In that situation your authorization will take the form of a letter to you from your J-1 RO/ARO, which you should keep permanently for your record.

A Note of Caution

As a J-1 scholar, your options for occasional lectures or consultations are limited. Please remember that employment without proper authorization is a serious violation of your status. Before you begin any kind of employment, you must first consult your J-1 RO/ARO (at Baylor, IS3 advisors), whose written approval is necessary in advance.
