THIS WEEK IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Involvement Opportunity- Student Government Programming Agency

Student Government is launching Student Government Programming Agency this semester. This program is designed to get students involved who have been neither elected nor appointed to a position within Student Government. This program is intended for emerging leaders at Baylor University. Interested students will work as a team to plan and host numerous Student Government events. The members will also get an in depth look into Student Government and the University that the average student does not get to experience. Applications are due Friday, January 25, at 5 p.m. For additional information, or for an application, visit www.baylor.edu/sg. Group interview and first meeting will be held this week. For additional information or questions about the agency, contact B_Kim@baylor.edu.

Student Government Vacancies

Vacancies for senior, sophomore, and freshman senate are still available. For additional information, contact B_Kim@baylor.edu.

The General SG Application

All applications are available online at www.baylor.edu/sg/index.php?id=65000. Applications are due Friday, January 25. For additional information, contact B_Kim@baylor.edu.

Monday Healthy Tip

Start slow, go steady. Physical activity isn't just a way to lose weight; it's an essential step towards a long, vibrant life. If you haven't been active in a while, now's the time to revamp your routine. Start out with smaller amounts of exercise at lower intensities and gradually progress to moderate-intensity activity to reduce your risk of injury. For additional information, contact Lori_Genous@baylor.edu.

Hot Opportunities
