Baylor Missions Events
Baylor Urban Missions
Want to invest in the larger Waco community through service? Baylor Urban Missions has several teams looking for additional volunteers whether you’re interested in sports, tutoring, visiting the elderly, or more. For additional information, contact Carole_Meriwether@baylor.edu or visit www.baylor.edu/missions for a complete listing of teams.

Spend May in Mission
Interested in a week long mission trip to Mission, Texas, along the Texas/Mexico border? Want to know what building a wood fired pizza oven has to do with missions? Interested in serving through construction, business as mission, and literacy programs? The trip will be on Sunday, May 18, to Saturday, May 24. The estimated cost is $420 (some scholarships available). For additional information, contact Carole_Meriwether@baylor.edu.

MAP-Works
Attention all first- and second-year students: MAP-Works is back! Maybe your GPA last semester wasn’t quite what you had hoped, or maybe you are anxious about keeping up the momentum through the semester. Whatever the case, MAP-Works can help you succeed and reach your goals at Baylor. The survey is available online until Monday, February 24. The results of this assessment will provide you with critical information to help you succeed at Baylor and beyond. Follow the link in the email you received last week or login at www.baylor.edu/map-works to take the spring assessment. For additional information, contact Ronald_English@baylor.edu.

Career and Professional Development Events

Tuesday, February 11:
- Workshop: Prepare for the Internship and Career Fair, 3:30-4:30 p.m. at Marrs McLean Science Building, Room 301. The career fair is your opportunity to meet with employers from a variety of organizations, learn about their opportunities, gather information you can use when applying for internships and jobs, and find out about next steps in the process. To achieve these goals, you need a plan of action to ensure you use your time effectively.
- Workshop: Why and How to Find an Internship, 5-6 p.m. at Marrs McLean Science Building, Room 301. Prepare ahead of time, and set a goal to complete one or two internships before your senior year. Learn how to search for an internship, research employers, prepare your resume, and more.

The presenter will be Virgie Sandford, District Sales Manager with Southwestern Advantage. Pizza and giveaways will be provided.

Tuesday, February 18: Mock Interviews with College Recruiters. A mock interview is a practice interview and one of the very best ways to prepare for an actual employment interview and a way you can improve the way you present yourself. These 30-minute interviews are meant to be as realistic as possible. You will be asked interview questions that would be asked by actual employers. You will need to upload a resume into your HireABear account prior to signing up for a mock interview.

Wednesday, February 19: Internship and Career Fair, 12:30-4:30 p.m. at the Waco Convention Center, 100 Washington Avenue. This fair is for students seeking internships and graduating students looking for their first professional job. Employers from profit, nonprofit, government, and educational industries recruiting Baylor students in all academic fields will be present. Recruiters from over 135 companies will be in attendance to talk about their internships and entry-level career positions. While some companies do seek specific majors, the majority of companies are open to all majors. For additional information or for a list of attending organization, visit www.myinterface.com/baylor/CareerFair/Detail/a0ZDZHv0NnBXaFVJN2dOODQrTjUwRVMwbUdzWk9Zbk9jSXIeXNDbmhDOD01.

Monday Healthy Tip from Monday Campaigns
Moderation is key. Giving up your favorite food can lead to gorging on something else. You don't have to cut out your preferred dish completely, as the drastic change can have a negative impact. This week, aim for moderation by eating your go-to meal just once.
