Hot Opportunities

Christmas Cards for Marines
December 8 Deadline. As a service project this year, the FCC will be collecting Christmas cards to send to marines overseas who cannot return home for the holidays. You are asked to write a positive note in the card about yourself, something funny, etc., and you may include their e-mail address if you wish. Please place your letter in an envelope and drop off in the SUB. There is a drop-off box located under the water fountain by the Starbucks. We will be collecting cards until December 8th and then they will be shipped to the marines for the Christmas holidays. For additional information please contact Carolyn_Key@baylor.edu.

Mission Opportunity
January 12 Deadline. University Ministries is sponsoring discipline specific mission opportunities to Kenya, Honduras, and Armenia in summer 2006. These experiences allow students to use what you are leaning in the classroom in a mission setting as faculty-led teams focus on serving in their respective fields. Applications are currently available and are due January 12. For more information, visit www.baylor.edu/missions.

Baylor Adopts Program
Student Government is coordinating the Baylor Adopts program and is asking for donations to send items to our soldiers. You may donate the following items: baby wipes, hand sanitizer, Blue Star Ointment, Gold Bond/medicated power, mouth wash, Chigg-Away, mosquito repellent, magazines, and books to the many camo-covered donation boxes around campus. The boxes are located in all residence halls and most buildings. A list of locations may be found at http://www.baylor.edu/. For additional information, contact David_Jakubowski@baylor.edu.
