Ask Congress to Protect Student Financial Aid
Congress is reviewing the Higher Education Act, and your elected representatives need to know that protecting student financial aid is a high priority. Please call 1-800-574-4AID to be transferred to the office of your U.S. Representative or U.S. Senators. Before you call, you can verify the name of your U.S. Representative by visiting www.house.gov and the names of your U.S. Senators by visiting www.senate.gov. Each of these websites has a search feature toward the top of the page. When you call, please encourage these elected officials to support federal grant and loan programs for college students. Thank you for your help!

Applications Being Accepted for the Fellow Program
The Academy for Leader Development is now accepting applications for the Fellow Program. The Academy Fellow Program is designed for students of any background or academic major who are interested in the concept of “leadership.” Students accepted into the program will agree to complete a series of curricular and co-curricular commitments. To find out more about the program, including how to get started, click on Fellow Program.

Applications Being Accepted for an Honor Society
Omicron Delta Kappa, a national honor society, is accepting applications from junior and senior students who have demonstrated leadership and academic excellence during their years at Baylor. Applications are available in the SUB and Student Activities Office and are due by October 14 to the ODK campus box #85528. For additional information e-mail Gregory White at G_A_White@baylor.edu or Dr. Andy Pittman at Andy_Pittman@baylor.edu.
