Academy for Leader Development and Civic Engagement Web site Launched
The Academy for Leader Development & Civic Engagement was established to create a common place where diverse individuals studying, researching or practicing leadership in the context of a Christian worldview will benefit from collaboration. Our new website provides information regarding a variety of programs and opportunities for students to cultivate their leadership abilities and aspirations including the Academy Fellows' Program and the Leadership Living-Learning Center. The website also offers a rich list of leadership resources, books, and more. To learn more about the Academy and programs, please visit our website at http://www.baylor.edu/leadership.

Commemorate a truly spectacular year!
Homecoming, SING, Lady Bears Victory, A&M Victory, Greek Events, and more!
If you have not purchased your Round Up yearbook for the 04-05 school year, it is not too late! The yearbook is $48, mailed to your permanent address, and is over 300 pages of full COLOR. You may purchase a yearbook in one of two ways.

1. Email Roundup@baylor.edu with your Student ID number, name, and the number of yearbooks you wish to purchase, if more than one. The $48 will be charged to your student account. OR
2. Go to Castellaw 226 to Ed Gulley's Office with your MasterCard or Visa to pay with a credit card.

The student body has selected Justin Crooks as the Mike Singletary Award Winner for the 2004 football season. The Singletary Award is given by the student body to the senior football player who has best represented Baylor both on and off the field. Congratulations to Justin and thanks to all those who voted.

If you have items you would like to see appear in On the BU Horizon, submit them for consideration to Student_Life@baylor.edu. We can publish only those items of interest to the general student population.

You can find the most up-to-date calendar information at http://www.baylor.edu/calendar/.

This is the last edition of On the BU Horizon for the spring semester. It will resume publication the first week of summer session classes.
