Register for RLS Minimester Intensive in Outdoor Leadership
The Recreation and Leisure Services Program is offering a for-credit outdoor leadership course involving climbing, hiking, backpacking, canyoneering, and paddling on Thursday, May 14, to Monday, June 1; and Friday, June 5, to Monday, June 8. It is designed to offer an exciting, challenging, and worthwhile forum for incorporating leadership theory to the practice of traveling, living, and recreating in the outdoors through involvements in a variety of outdoor pursuits. The 21-day course will travel to the Wichita Mountains in Oklahoma, the Pecos Wilderness Area in New Mexico, the Paria Canyon in Arizona, and the Pecos River in Texas. The curriculum is centered on outdoor leadership and outdoor skill development. This course offers up to six hours of credit (upper level elective or Lifetime Fitness for non-majors). Summer I students will be accommodated. This course is suitable for the beginner but participants need to recognize the responsibility for carrying themselves and personal/group gear over and through rough terrain in unpredictable outdoor environments. A good fitness level and positive attitude is necessary for success on this course as is a commitment to the academic requirements. For additional information or to register, visit www.baylor.edu/hhpr/outdoorleadership, contact Kelli_McMahan@baylor.edu, or call 710-3712.
