The February meeting was called to order by Marilyn Eichelberger who gave the welcome on behalf of President Amber Thompson. She explained that Amber could not be with us because her daughter was ill. Cyndie Burgess gave the invocation.

Linda Cates, Chair of the Nominating Committee, presented the officers for next year. The committee members are Linda Klatt, Wanda LeMaster, Heather Luft, and Sally Firmin. The slate of officers presented for 2006-2007 included:

- President – Linda Klatt
- Vice President (President Elect) – Judy Maggard
- Recording Secretary – Joyce Miller
- Corresponding Secretary – Anna Kay Hollon-Harris
- Treasurer – Betsy Willis
- Parliamentarian – Linda Cates
- Publicity Coordinator – Paulette Edwards
- Historians – Marilyn Eichelberger (2nd year of term)
Carol Schuetz (new two-year term)
- Immediate Past President – Amber Thompson

The slate was unanimously approved.

Anita Rolf and Janet Porter announced the next meeting, the Anniversary Celebration Dinner Theatre to be held Friday, March 24 at 6:15 p.m., at the Hooper-Schaefer Fine Arts Center in conjunction with the production of “Schoolhouse Rock Live!”.

Denyse Seaman introduced Associate Dean William Hair III, who spoke on the changing role of libraries in higher education. At the conclusion of the program, Christine Wilkins thanked Dean Hair, program coordinators Denyse Seaman and Cyndie Burgess, as well as the February hostesses. Betty Ruth Baker, Dana Benesh, Rosanne Fuller, Carol Gene Graves, Wanda LeMaster, Kathy Nordt, Gerry Reiersen, Nell Smith, and Sandra Tidmore greeted members and provided refreshments in Cox Reception Hall following the program.

Respectfully submitted

Amber Thompson, President
