Career & Professional Development Hosting "50 Jobs in 50 States"

Wednesday, April 20, 5-6 p.m. in the Paul L. Foster Campus for Business and Innovation, Room 240. The presenter, Daniel Seddiqui, is known as the world's most ambitious job seeker, yet has been named by USA Today as the most rejected person in the world. With failing over 40+ consecutive job interviews, sending out 18,000 emails, and making nearly 5,000 phone calls, this individual achieved his mission of working 50 Jobs in 50 states. Leaving his economics degree from the University of Southern California behind, he's been everything from a weatherman in Ohio and a border patrol agent in Arizona to a coal miner in West Virginia and a rodeo announcer in South Dakota. For additional information, visit www.baylor.edu/cpd/index.php?id=868155.

First in Line Hosting Seminar

Thursday, April 21, 5-6 p.m. at the Sid Richardson Building, Room 225. This seminar is to help students learn how to maximize their loans, different ways to pay back loans, gain knowledge about credit cards, and how to budget and prioritize spending. Students will also learn about the benefits of Baylor summer programs. For additional information, contact FirstinLine@baylor.edu or visit www.baylor.edu/firstinline/index.php?id=928493.

Multicultural Affairs Events

Thursday, April 21: MISTER, 6 p.m. in the Claypool Room of the SUB. M.I.S.T.E.R. (Males Inspiring Success Through Education and Relationships) aims and seeks to find ways of supporting, nurturing, and bolstering persistence of social, religious, and academic performance among minority males at Baylor University. Through the Department of Multicultural Affairs, M.I.S.T.E.R. provides a place for minority males to explore issues impacting them as they conceptualize positive features for themselves. This organization is open to all students, friends, and allies who are interested in being a supportive presence in the lives of these young men RSVP to Geoffrey_Griggs@baylor.edu, by 12 noon on Wednesday, April 20.

Sunday, April 24: Kente Ceremony, 4-5:30 p.m. in Miller Chapel. Join us as we share and celebrate a heritage rich in tradition with the Baylor community for students graduating in 2016. A reception will follow in the Student Foundations building. For additional information, contact Geoffrey_Griggs@baylor.edu.
