April is National Sexual Assault Awareness Month

Throughout the month of April, colleges and universities across the nation host events and activities to raise awareness about sexual violence and how to prevent it. There are many ways you can join Baylor University in supporting survivors and working to eliminate interpersonal violence from our campus. Visit www.baylor.edu/titleix for additional information. Look for upcoming events in What's New BU every week.

Baylor United for UNICEF Applications

The United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) is a service organization dedicated to helping women and children around the world receive access to food, clean water, sturdy shelters, education, and overall better living situations. This organization is looking to raise awareness and funds for these issues in the Baylor community through drives, fund-raisers, speaker events, documentary viewings, and service work. The open officer positions are associate treasurer, associate secretary, and associate social chair. The application for all three is available here. Applications are due on Thursday, April 20, at 12 midnight. Each applicant must complete a short task with their application, which is also due Thursday, April 20. Interviews will be on Monday, April 24, 5-7 p.m., at Morrison 100.
