

The Mayborn Museum Complex Presents
Summer lectures in conjunction with the exhibit
Feathered Treasures: Ceremonial Objects of the Amazon

featuring

Dr. Anna Roosevelt

Professor of Anthropology, University of Illinois, Chicago specializing in Amazonia

Maria Velazquez

Attaché to the Consul General of Mexico and art appraiser specializing in feather art

10:00 am – 2:30pm • Saturday, July 8, 2006

Mayborn Museum Complex, Baylor University • 1300 S. University Parks Drive • Waco, Texas

Costs include museum visit, lectures and exhibit ticket:

Members $6 with lunch; free without lunch. Non-members $16 with lunch; $10 without lunch

10:00 – 11:00 Registration and exhibit viewing

11:00 – 12:00 Ms. Velazquez presents “Feather Art in the Americas”

12:00 – 1:00 Box lunches at the museum

1:00 – 2:00 Dr. Roosevelt presents “Ancient Amazon: A Sequence of Complex Cultures in the Rainforest”

2:00 – 2:30 Dr. Roosevelt and Ms. Velazquez will be in the gallery to informally discuss the exhibition

Dr. Roosevelt will be presenting “Ancient Amazon: A Sequence of Complex Cultures in the Rainforest.” She will sketch different archaeological cultures of Amazonia, focusing on their ceremonialism and relation to the environment.

Ms. Velazquez will complement the exhibit with a lecture that addresses the artifacts exhibited from an art history point of view and in context within the tradition of feather art in the Americas.

Please use this form to register. Deadline is July 3rd.

For questions, please call Sarah Levine at 254-710-2517 (email: Sarah_Levine@baylor.edu)

Name(s): _____

Reserve ____ member places with lunch x $6 = total: ____ put number desired: ____ham ____turkey

Reserve ____ non-member places with lunch x 16 = total: ____ put number desired: ____ham ____turkey

Reserve ____ member places without lunch no charge

Reserve ____ non-member places without lunch x 10 = total: ____

Total: ____

Make checks payable to Mayborn Museum Complex and return form and check to:

Mayborn Museum Complex

attn: Lectures

One Bear Place #97154

Waco, TX 76798-7154