Don’t Get Left Out!
Campus Living and Learning Reapplication Process and Brooks College

Reapplication Process:
As a returning student, you have priority for the best spaces on campus for the 2007-08 academic year! The online housing application will be available on Monday, November 6, 2006, to all students who have submitted their $200 security deposit to the Cashier’s office prior to November 6. To learn how easy it is to reserve a space on campus for the 2007-08 academic year, please visit www.baylor.edu/CLL/reapp.

Campus Living and Learning Brooks College:
Introducing Baylor’s first ever residential college! Because living on campus is good for student learning, Campus Living and Learning is advancing Imperative II of Baylor 2012—create a truly residential campus. Applications are being accepted for Baylor’s first residential college, Brooks College. Students of all classifications and majors are encouraged to apply for this unique experience that will transform learning. For more information about Brooks College, please visit www.baylor.edu/CLL/brookscollege. For additional information, contact Ronald English at 254-710-6955 or Ronald_English@baylor.edu.
