THIS WEEK IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT

See What Your Student Government Accomplished in 2006
This fall, Student Government has worked on many issues including scholarships for upperclassmen to create more 24-hour study areas on campus. Student Government also worked with community leaders to establish the first ever Community Involvement Council. To see more, visit http://www.baylor.edu/sg/news.php?action=story&story=43460.

Student Court Justice Applications
If you would like to serve your fellow students, apply for one of the three openings on the Baylor University Student Court. Applications are available now in the Student Government office and online at http://www.baylor.edu/content/services/document.php/33255.pdf. Applications are due Friday, January 19.

Get Funds for Your Organization
The Student Life Fund is a portion of the student fees set aside for students and student organizations to use for purposes to benefit Baylor. For additional information, visit http://bin.baylor.edu/sg/sg_allocation.php.
