New Honor Code
The Honor Code Revision Committee worked from September 2005 through November 2006 to make changes to the existing code that will strengthen Baylor’s culture of academic integrity. To that end, the new Code, supported by the Faculty Senate, the Council of Deans, the current Honor Council, and President Lilley, was put into effect on January 12, 2007. Please check out the new code at www.baylor.edu/student_policies/index.php?id=32287. Take particular note of the new reporting system that tracks students who are found guilty of violating the Code as well as the process for a student to follow when accused of a violation. For additional information, contact the Office for Academic Integrity at 254-710-8882.
