

YOUTH SOCCER PLAYERS!

Join us at the Play for Hope soccer clinic, cheer on the Bears, and help women in poverty!

Saturday April 25, 2009

Betty Lou Mays Soccer Stadium on the Campus of Baylor University

Come enjoy college exhibition play (optional)

10:00 am: Baylor vs. Trinity
St. Mary's vs. Houston Baptist U.

1:00 pm: Lamar vs. St. Marys
Trinity vs. HBU

4:00 pm: Baylor vs. Lamar

5:30 - 7:00 pm: Play for Hope clinic

Play for Hope at the 1.5 hour clinic following the final game: 5:30 - 7:00pm

Play For Hope Clinic Coaches Include:

- Marci Miller Jobson: Former National Team Player and Baylor Head Women's Soccer Coach
- Paul Jobson: Associate Head Coach, Baylor Women's Soccer
- Chuck Codd: Assistant Coach, Baylor Women's Soccer
- Charmaine Hooper: Former Canadian National Team, 124 caps
- Baylor Women's Soccer Team Players

Reserve your spot in the Play For Hope Clinic! (ages 5-18)

- RSVP to: maggie@discoverhopefund.org or call, 512-351-9938
- Download the liability slip at: <http://www.baylor.edu/content/services/document.php/81117.PDF> you must bring this signed to the clinic to participate
- Bring $15 cash/check made to: DiscoverHope Fund or donation amount that is affordable for you
- If you have them, bring shin guards, soccer ball, and water

The Play For Hope Clinic will also feature a silent auction opportunity for signed memorabilia from Carli Lloyd, 2008 U.S. Soccer Athlete of the Year and U.S. National team star!

The Play For Hope clinic is part of the Baylor women's soccer quest to participate in service work to create sustainability and opportunity for women in poverty. 100% of the proceeds from the Play For Hope clinic and/or entrance donations to our games will go to the Austin-based nonprofit DiscoverHope Fund:

DiscoverHope Fund (DHF) is an international development organization promoting abundance for women and their families living in economic poverty through microcredit and sustainable support systems.