RefWorks Training Sessions Available in February

RefWorks is a Web-based tool (comparable to and compatible with EndNote) that can build a personal database of bibliographic citations by importing them from online library databases. Citations can be collected from databases or added manually, organized in folders, cited in papers and automatically formatted for bibliography and footnotes for specific styles (MLA, APA, Chicago, etc.). The citations can also be searched within your personal RefWorks database.

Attend one of the following seminars to learn more about RefWorks, including: how to set up a RefWorks account, import references from library databases, create your own records, create folders, use the citations in research papers and learn about an additional feature of RefWorks – RefShare.

Come to a session in Jones Library, Room 105, that fits your schedule.

•Wednesday, February 6--	•Thursday, February 7--
9:30 am - 11:00 am	9:00 am - 10:30 am

Changes Made In Computing Facilities

Beginning tonight, the Moody Garden Level computer facility will be open throughout the Library's 24-hour open times. The Study Area in the Information Commons is also currently available to students on the Library's 24-hour Area schedule.

On closing days, the Computer Facilities will now have closing hours that match Library closing times (previously the Computer Facilities always closed 30 minutes before Library closing time).

All equipment available to patrons in our Laptop Checkout Program has now been distinctively marked with red property tags beside the Library Barcode. This addition is for identification and security purposes.   The Laptop Checkout Program's equipment is also indelibly etched with an identification number somewhere on the outer casing.

For further information, email Cheyenne Kelly or call her at ext. 2843.

Town Hall Meetings Scheduled

All Library and Information Technology personnel are invited to attend one of the Town Hall Meetings with Pattie Orr. These small group meetings are designed to be informal where everyone is able to share ideas, make comments and have a Q&A time with Pattie.

Dates, times and locations for the upcoming meetings:

•Tuesday, January 22, 4:00-5:00 p.m.-- Information Technology Services (Robinson Tower, Suite 720)
•Wednesday, January 23, 4:00-5:00 p.m.-- Baylor Collections of Political Materials (Reading Room)
•Monday, January 28, 4:00-5:00 p.m.-- Moody Library (Staff Room)
•Monday, February 4, 4:00-5:00 p.m.-- Texas Collection (Reading Room)
•Tuesday, February 5, 4:00-5:00 p.m.-- Armstrong Browning Library (1st Floor Seminar Room)

Space is limited at each location, so please call Hattie (ext. 2112) or email (Hattie_Black@baylor.edu) with your choice of location.
