Synopsis:

How much time and effort is wasted in your organization because team members don't fully understand each others' roles and responsibilities?

In this program you will discover how to:

- Encourage both vertical and horizontal understanding
- Use the T.E.A.M. approach to help everyone feel they're working toward a common goal
- Build a high level of trust between team members
- Use a simple formula to identify everyone's skills, strengths and challenges
- Motivate teammates by offering praise the right way

This video shows how team understanding leads to greater cooperation, productivity and success.
