

Emily Rodgers, Elizabeth LeConey and Jared Tseng, prize-winners at the Texas State Arts and Crafts Fair: Emerging Texas Artists Scholarship Program, Kerrville, May 2008

Emily Rodgers '08 (a University Scholar who took Studio and Art History courses) currently is enrolled in the Student Affairs Administration graduate program at Baylor. She also holds an assistantship with the Global Community Living Learning Center at Brooks Flats.

About her work on campus, Emily says, "I get to work on a daily basis both with Baylor students who are in the Center and with international students who live there. The Global Community is a language immersion initiative that is focused on preparing students for worldwide leadership and service. Other campus involvement includes serving as a Brooks College Trustee. I am continuing to paint and have most recently done a series of architectural paintings of different Baylor buildings."
