ITS/University Libraries Events

November 17, to Friday, November 21: The Libraries of Baylor University invite you to join them in this season of thanksgiving by participating in their annual food drive for Caritas' "Food for Families" program. Everyone in the Baylor community is encouraged to place non-perishable, packaged food items in containers located in the lobbies of Moody, Jones, Armstrong Browning, and Poage Libraries, along with the Texas Collection at the Carroll Library. For additional information, contact Carol_Schuetz@baylor.edu or call 254-710-4410.

Computer Security Awareness Poster and Video Contest: The EDUCAUSE/Internet2 Computer and Network Security Task Force, with the help of ResearchChannel, is conducting a contest in search of short computer security awareness videos and posters developed by college students for college students. The contest seeks creative, topical, and effective posters and videos of two minutes or less that focus attention on computing security problems and how best to handle them. Winners will receive cash prizes, and their videos and posters will be featured on the Security Task Force Web site at www.educause.edu/security. The winning videos and posters may be used in campus security awareness campaigns. A gold cash prize of $1,000, silver cash prize of $800, and bronze cash prize of $400, will be awarded in four categories: Training films of two minutes or less, 30-second public service announcements (PSAs), posters, and videos submitted with posters as a combined entry. The deadline for submissions is Thursday, April 30, 2009. For additional information, visit www.educause.edu/SecurityVideoContest2009.
