Vote for Sarah Taylor!

Sarah Taylor, a senior, speech communication major, has auditioned for a summer internship with the Texas campaign "Don't Mess with Texas." Don't Mess with Texas.org is conducting this intern search much like the popular television show "American Idol." After thousands of applicant interviews, Sarah is in the final four, and they are testing her networking potential with an internet vote. To vote or to see a short clip of Sarah's interview, visit www.Dontmesswithtexas.org and click "intern." The last day to vote is Wednesday, April 29.

Poster and T-shirt Design Contest

Career Counseling is sponsoring a contest; open to students of all majors, to create a marketing theme for next year's career counseling services. The theme would be advertised via posters and t-shirts. Designs from the past three years are available for viewing in Sid Richardson, Room 132. The winner of the contest will receive a $200 book voucher to the Baylor Bookstore and must sign over artistic rights to the Career Counseling department. An alternative file type may be requested from the contest winner. Students may submit more than one entry. Each entry must be submitted as a PDF or JPEG to Pat_Weaver@baylor.edu no later than Wednesday, July 15. Entries will be judged by the Career Counseling staff and four additional representatives from the Paul L. Foster Success Center. For additional information, contact 254-710-8239.

THIS WEEK IN STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Listening Session: Define Baylor's Future

Wednesday, April 22, 5 p.m. in Miller Chapel of Tidwell Bible Building. Members of the presidential search committee and advisory committee will be hosting a series of listening sessions, one of which will be for students. Dr Pepper Floats will be served.
