The Cornelia Marschall Smith Professor of the Year Award Nominations

Baylor University announces the seventh annual Cornelia Marschall Smith Professor of the Year Award, for a Baylor faculty member who makes a superlative contribution to the learning environment at Baylor, including teaching which is judged to be of the highest order of intellectual acumen and pedagogical effectiveness, research which is recognized as outstanding by the national and/or international as well as local community of scholars, and service which is regarded as exemplary in building the character of intellectual community at Baylor. Nominations are requested from all faculty, students, and alumni nominating their former teachers. Nominees from previous years are welcome. Nominations must be submitted to the candidate's dean by 5 p.m. Monday, November 2, and must include:

- A letter of nomination from the nominator, telling why the candidate deserves the award
- A letter from the candidate agreeing to be considered for the award
- A curriculum vitae from the candidate
