Theme: The Roses are Still in Bloom

Every so often, the Round Table celebrates with High Tea. This year the celebration was the annual birthday tea. The refreshment table was beautifully presented with appropriate refreshments of tea sandwiches, truffles, cheese cakes, and mini-muffins. And, of course, hot tea was offered.

After the refreshments were enjoyed, Martha Lou Scott, president, welcomed the members and thanked the program chairs, Ruth Belew and Cindy Dougherty. She also thanked the committee members who had to change plans at the last minute for the tea because President George W. Bush was holding a meeting on the campus with the President of Mexico, Vincente Fox and the Prime Minister of Canada, Paul Martin. Committee members are Ali Abercrombie, Anita Baker, Pat Johnson, Bonnie Luft, Heather Luft, Carolyn Roark, and Jenny Shankle.

The Round Table tea had been scheduled for noon at the Alumni Center. As a result of the change, the attendance was lower than expected. However, it was a fun afternoon, with the tables decorated beautifully by Pat Johnson, with roses and candles.

After the welcome, Cindy Dougherty led in prayer. Martha Lou then mentioned that last month's minutes and the treasurer's report are posted for members to read. She asked that she be notified of any needed changes.

Martha Lou gave a short summary of Round Table history, and Joyce Packard read a tribute to Mo Gingerich, who died recently. She was a member of Round Table for many years.

Anita Rolf presided over the installation of officers for 2005-2006.
