The mission of Baylor University is to educate men and women for worldwide leadership and service by integrating academic excellence and Christian commitment within a caring community.

Baylor enrollment typically includes students from all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and approximately 90 foreign countries.

Library holdings include 1.5 million bound volumes as well as numerous periodicals, microforms, government documents, and audiovisual materials.

As of May 31, 2006, the University endowment market value was approximately $870 million. Approximately 84% of Baylor students receive student financial assistance.

The curriculum includes 145 baccalaureate programs, 76 master's programs, and 22 doctoral programs. In addition, the Education Specialist degree is offered by the School of Education and the Juris Doctor degree is offered by the School of Law.

Baylor is one of the select 11% of U.S. colleges and universities with a Phi Beta Kappa chapter.

84% of entering freshmen return to Baylor for their second year.

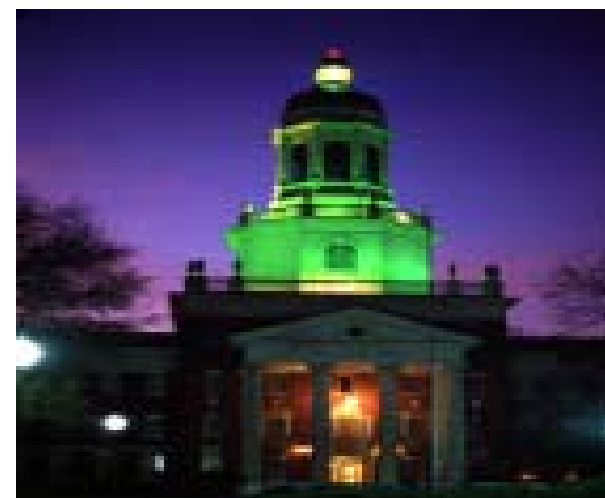

Graduation rates: Recent studies indicate that approximately 47% of entering freshmen graduate from Baylor within four years, 68% graduate within five years and 71% graduate within six years.

Baylor ranks in the top 15% of colleges and universities participating in the National Merit Scholarship program.

Chartered by the Republic of Texas in 1845, Baylor is the oldest university in Texas. The 508-acre main campus adjoins the Brazos River near downtown Waco, a Central Texas city of 120,000 people.
