Eligibility
All full-time employees (and their eligible dependents) may enroll in a dental plan upon employment.

Eligible dependents —
The following are considered eligible dependents for the purposes of the dental plans:

- An employee's spouse
- An employee's child who is unmarried, dependent upon the employee for more than one-half of his/her support as defined by the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, not in active military service, and who is either
  - under 26 years of age
  - disabled.
- An employee’s child who is 19-26 and is not eligible for their own employer group dental plan.

Dependent means your spouse or a child who is:

- Under the limiting age shown on the Schedule of Coverage;
- A child of any age who is medically certified as disabled prior to the 26th birthday and dependent on the parent for support and maintenance.

1. Child means:
   a. Your natural child; or
   i. Your legally adopted child, including a child for whom the Participant is a party in a suit in which the adoption of the child is sought; or
   ii. Your stepchild; or
   iii. A child of your child who is your dependent for federal income tax purposes at the time application of coverage of the child of your child is made; or
iv. A child for whom a Participant has received a court order requiring that Participant to have financial responsibility for providing health insurance; or
v. A child not listed above whose primary residence is your household; and
vi. to whom you are legal guardian or related by blood or marriage; and
vii. who is dependent upon you for more than one-half of his support as defined by the Internal Revenue Code of the United States.

Cancellation
Employees may cancel participation only during the open enrollment period at the end of each calendar year or any time there is a change in status within 30 days of the qualifying event.

Employees who cancel or reject coverage will have the opportunity to enroll during the next open enrollment period, or they may enroll under the provisions for the qualifying event.

Separation from Service
Employees separating from service and their dependents who have been covered may apply for continued coverage for up to 18 months subject to the following conditions:
- Participants must apply within 30 days of separation for extended coverage.
- Participants must not be eligible for other group coverage or Medicare.
- Separated participants must pay both the employee monthly premium and the employer contribution for coverage.

Note: For information on continued coverage during official retirement see BU-PP 600.
