

Baylor Collections of Political Materials

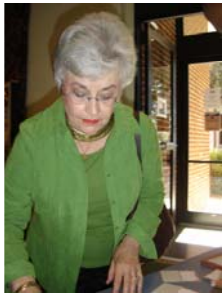

REPORT OCTOBER 2006

OPEN HOUSE

THE HIGHTOWERS

Integrity ~ Justice ~ Service

WHO DID WHAT, PART 2

Grace Chiuri welcomed everyone at the name tag table and gave them a packet of materials.

Brittney Bain was in charge of making sure everyone signed the guest book as they arrived.

Edwin Cook directed traffic in the foyer making sure folks knew to go into the reading room first, then around the scrapbook table, past refreshments, and into the exhibit gallery.

Janna Dotschkal was the roving candid camera photographer in the foyer and throughout the exhibit area.

Kristine Harveaux-Lundeen welcomed folks to the reading room area and assisted them in writing notes to the Hightowers. Her mother drove up from Belton for the Open House.

Mac Macwan

was the official photographer for "The Judge is In" photo op.

Frank Jasek and Susan Bowlin staffed the book vault explaining to guests about the care and feeding of rare books.

Michael Koski served as official page turner for the Hightower scrapbook exhibit.

Pam Belser took care of refreshments.

Benna Ball and Amanda Wisch served as hostesses in the exhibit gallery greeting guests and explaining the exhibits.

Michael Holdridge was official photographer of "The Windmill is Turning" photo op. His parents drove down from Athens for the Open House.

Michael Anderson was the Prize and Puzzle Man handing out prizes for completed puzzles at the end of the exhibit trail in the Hightower Reception area.

OPEN HOUSE photos are online at <http://www.winkflash.com/photo/signin.aspx>

OCTOBER Stats from Special Collections' Team cataloger Janet Pence. Books titles 95, vol. 184; Kits 3, vol 123; Vertical files titles 46, vol. 97, Bearcat original cataloging 51 titles.

ACCESSIONS

We continue to receive materials on a monthly basis from Bob Platt and Jack White. In October we made contact with Gary Shaw, a Cleburne architect who also has JFK materials he is willing to loan us to copy.

STUDENT WORKERS

Students are processing papers from Jack Hightower, Penn Jones, Jack White, Gary Shaw, and Bob Platt.

SUBMITTED BY BEN ROGERS, NOVEMBER 2006