

SAM D. JOHNSON

Baylor University, Bachelor of Business Administration, 1946

University of Texas, Bachelor of Laws, 1949

New York University College of Law, Appellate Judges'
Graduate Seminar, 1968

Attorney, Hillsboro, Texas, 1949-1952

District and County Attorney, Hill County, 1953-1958

District Judge, 66th Judicial District, Hillsboro, Texas, 1959-1965

First Executive Director, Houston Legal Foundation, 1965-1967

Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Houston, Texas, 1967-1972

Justice, Supreme Court of Texas, 1973 to present

Chairman, Appellate Judges' Conference, American Bar Association

Member and former officer of numerous Bar Associations

Member, Institute of Judicial Administration

Member, American Judicature Society

Member, Board of Directors, Presbyterian Children's Home and Service Agency

Elder, Covenant Presbyterian Church, Austin, Texas

Member, Board of Directors, United Urban Council of Austin, Texas

Order of the Coif, Honorary University of Texas Law
School, 1977

President, Baylor Ex-Students Association, 1973-1974

Life Member, Baylor Alumni Association

