Spring 2018	Student shared code with other students who submitted student's work as their own with only minor modifications on a take-home exam in Engineering.	Faculty	The incident was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Spring 2018	Student submitted for credit in Electrical and Computer Engineering six out of ten assignments that were copied from the work of another student.	Honor Council (2nd Violation-Automatic Referral)	Received a "0" for all six assignments.
Spring 2018	Student used the work of another student on an assignment and submitted a modified copy for credit in Computer Science.	Faculty	The incident was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Spring 2018	Student allowed work on an assignment to be used by another student to make a modified copy and submit for credit in Computer Science.	Faculty	The incident was reported to the Office of Academic Integrity.
Spring 2018	Student submitted for credit in Biology a report that was substantially similar to one submitted by a former student.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2017	Student asked another student, who had already taken the course, for an electronic copy of an assignment that student had submitted for a grade in Theology. Student then copied the assignment of the other student and submitted it as his own for credit in Theology. When questioned, student repeatedly lied about what had happened.	Faculty	Received a "0" for this portion of the assignment – approximately 25% of the final grade. Must re-submit a satisfactory draft, both hard copy and electronic copy, of this portion of the assignment. The final draft of the entire assignment is due. If it not completed satisfactorily by due date, student will receive an "F" for the course. Student is also required to write a 5-page essay on the topic, "Why a Christian Should Always Speak The Truth." If it is not completed satisfactorily, the student will not pass the course.
Fall 2017	Student submitted a paper for credit in Sociology that was to include findings from research student conducted, but the paper contained 31% (according to Turnitin) of content from a project another student submitted previously.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment (a loss of 10 points out of 200 possible in the course).
Fall 2017	Student allowed another student to submit student's work as that student's own for credit in	Faculty	Received a "0" on the assignment.
