

WITNESSING DISHONORABLE CONDUCT

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (14)

Witnessing conduct which one knows or should reasonably know is dishonorable and failing to report it as required by this Honor Code.

SEMESTER	OFFENSE	FACULTY OR HONOR COUNCIL DECISION	SANCTION
Spring 2007	None.
Summer 2007	None.
Fall 2007	None.
Spring 2008	None.
Summer 2008	None.
Fall 2008	None.
Spring 2009	Student failed to take reasonable steps during exam in Psychology to protect student's exam even though student suspected that the student next to him was copying from student's exam. Student also failed to report the inappropriate exam behavior of the other student. In addition, on two other exams student had the same version of the exam as the student next to him even though this was not permitted and student failed to report this to the instructor.	Honor Council - Not Guilty	None
Summer 2009	None.
Fall 2009	None.
Spring 2010	None.
Summer 2010	None.
Fall 2010	None.
Spring 2011	None.
Summer 2011	None.
Fall 2011	None.
Spring 2012	None.
Summer 2012	None.
Fall 2012	None.
Spring 2013	None.
Summer 2013	None.
Fall 2013	None.

WITNESSING DISHONORABLE CONDUCT

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (14)

Witnessing conduct which one knows or should reasonably know is dishonorable and failing to report it as required by this Honor Code.

Spring 2014	Student emailed a copy of an exam in Health Education, complete with the answers to another student.	Faculty	Pending
Summer 2014	None.
Fall 2014	None.
Spring 2015	None.
Summer 2015	None.
Fall 2015	Student allowed another student to take pictures of student's completed case study in Nutrition and did not report the dishonorable conduct of the other student. In addition, when questioned, student lied to the professor by denying knowledge of the incident.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Fall 2015	Student received an email attachment from another student containing all of the answers to an assignment in Nutrition and indicating these answers had been checked with a third student who had already submitted the assignment for credit. Student did not report the dishonorable conduct of the other student(s). In addition, when questioned, student lied to the professor by denying knowledge of the incident.	Faculty	Received a "0" for the assignment.
Spring 2016	When questioned by the professor as to whether student had knowledge of people working together on an assignment for credit in Quantitative Business Analysis in violation of instructions that the assignment was an individual assignment, student said that student did have knowledge of people who worked together, but refused to identify those students.	Honor Council	NOT GUILTY
Summer 2016	None.

WITNESSING DISHONORABLE CONDUCT

Honor Code Definitions II. C. (14)

Witnessing conduct which one knows or should reasonably know is dishonorable and failing to report it as required by this Honor Code.

Fall 2016	Student witnessed another student cheating during the final exam in Management by using and referencing a cell phone repeatedly, in violation of the professor's instructions, but failed to report this behavior.	Honor Council	Not Guilty
-----------	--	---------------	------------

Rev. 9-1-2009; 1-6-2010; 5-28-2010; 1-14-2011; 6-16-2011; 01-05-2012; 05/25/2012; 08/18/2012; 01/03/2013; 05/28/2013; 8/19/2013; 01/16/2014; 06/11/2014; 08/19/2014; 01/15/2015; 05/27/2015; 08/18/2015; 01/05/2016; 06/13/2016; 09/22/2016; 1/18/2017