Adult/Child Counselor

SUMMARY OF POSITION

The Adult/Child Counselor will provide individual and group counseling for primary and secondary adult/child victims of domestic violence.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide individual and group counseling
- Provide counseling services including diagnosing, assessing, and treating individuals utilizing crisis intervention, cognitive behavioral, solution focused, motivational interviewing, grief and loss, play therapy, and any other therapeutic techniques as necessary.
- Provide intensive case management when appropriate
- Provide domestic violence education to potential, current, and past primary/secondary adult/child victims of family violence
- Provide domestic violence education and awareness to community members as necessary
- Identify client needs and make referrals for services when appropriate
- Cultivate, maintain and coordinate a network of community support contacts and serve as liaison on behalf of clients when necessary
- Provide task or field instruction for undergraduate and graduate level social work or counseling students as necessary
- Maintain appropriate documentation for clients as required by supervisor, funders, and agency
- Provide crisis line coverage as necessary
- Complete other tasks as assigned by supervisor

QUALIFICATIONS

Education

- Master’s degree in social work or counseling required (LMSW, LCSW, or LPC)

Licensures/Credentials

- LMSW, LCSW, or LPC preferred
- Bilingual preferred

Experience

- Experience in the field of domestic and/or sexual violence
- Experience working with adults and children in crisis
- Experience providing individual and group counseling for primary and secondary adult/child victims of domestic violence

Skills/Abilities

- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Experience working with a diverse population and groups
- Strong organizational skills
- Understands appropriate conflict resolution and demonstrates skill
- Ability to maintain personal balance while accomplishing multiple tasks that require a variety of skills
- Ability to provide and receive peer supervision
- Demonstrates effectiveness as a member of a team as well as the ability to work independently
- Demonstrates skills of self-direction
- Flexibility and ability to prioritize job responsibilities

Please send cover letter and resume to Kathy Reid at Kathy.Reid@familyabusecenter.org.